Secretary-Treasurer

September, 1926! Again glorious and golden autumn ushered in her beauty and with her a troop of eager but verdant freshmen at Michigan State Normal College. It was a year to be remembered, one filled with disillusionment and discovery. We were not the all-important figures we had dreamed ourselves; we were little more than atoms in a great world of people and knowledge. With the waning of our self-importance came the dawn of a great ambition to learn and become more, to fit ourselves to teach those who were to follow, so that they might be less immature, less callow, so that they might be filled with greater eagerness and provided with a more complete background. It was a year in which we not only discovered a new intellectual relationship with the world, but also found ourselves in a new social situation. We were initiated into the mysteries of how to live in peace and harmony with a roommate, how to select the organizations most worth joining, how to decide problems of our welfare without the advice of the home guard. On cap night, however, when we cast aside the last vestiges of our college infancy, we felt beyond a doubt that it had been a great year.

Our sophomore days found us more dignified, but more willing to enter freely into the spirit of college life. Vacation had taught us that the Normal campus was a fine old place to be. Already ties had been formed and friendships made that many a year would not break. Homecoming, the greatest event of the fall term, took on a new meaning; Kresge Balls and All College parties became social events of more than expected enjoyment. The Co-ed Prom and College Comedy passed, and we looked forward with anticipation for their re-occurrence. 1927-28 was a red-letter period.

Then came our Junior year and election! That election almost swamped our search for knowledge. However, when with our help, Hoover was safely voted into the White House, we settled down to work. The winter term found us agog over the new library. We were all thankful that fortune had granted us one more year that we might enjoy its beauty and facilities. Despite the miseries of vaccination, we studied with an earnestness and zest which astonished our professors. The annual J-Hop came off in February and was more than ever a splendid event. All in all the year was a never-to-be-forgotten one, and amidst our pleasures we half sighed that we should return but once again.

Autumn of 1929! But what a different season from the one four short years ago. The glories of the campus were the same, the incoming freshmen seemed as eager and as verdant, but we had been transformed. We were no longer a raw and eager troop of embryo teachers; we had assumed a dignity, a quietness, and a poise essential in those who are to determine the destinies of a republic. To our already developed zest for learning was added the impetus of the new library—a building to be proud of, a building to be used. It exceeded all our hopes and increased our one regret that we had only one short year in which to absorb its store of knowledge and enjoy its comfort and its beauty. This year, too, saw the illumination of the dome of the Water Tower, Ypsilanti's well-known landmark. Its glow seemed like a beacon leading the way to the institution whose riches we had enjoyed for all too short a time. The departing Seniors look with regret on the beckoning dome and yet with hope that it may truly become a beacon calling others to the same opportunities and pleasures with which Michigan State Normal College has enriched the Class of 1930.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Junior Class was promptly reorganized in the fall term. Then the annual social wrangle began as the executive staff was selected. Donald Flynn of Gladwin was elected president; Joseph Pray of Ypsilanti, vice-president; Charlotte Ortwein of Grosse Pointe, secretary; and Alyce Edwards of Port Huron, treasurer. There followed a spontaneous campaign for a sergeant-at-arms, which resulted in the election of Norman Krecke.

February fourteenth marked the stellar climax of an unusually brilliant social season with the Junior Hop. The modernistic setting and the excellent music effected a glorious success. Jean Goldkette's Country Club Orchestra, with his clever drummer, Ray Gorrell, directing, made the affair gay and sparkling by novelty arrangements and special numbers. And wasn't that bass fiddle some music box? The rhythms that were "bomped out" on the instrument surely did add the "whale of a difference."

The entire decorating was carried out on a black-and-white modernistic scheme with stripes and panels of dancing figures. A false ceiling of parallel stripes was augmented by vertical stripes on the walls executed in a modernistic arrangement. The dancing (?) figures on the panels at each end of the Armory seemed as temperamental in expression as the weather. The black veiling stage curtains gave the impression of musicians half-concealed in an ethereal mist. But it didn't bother the music!

The Grand March was led by our president, Donald Flynn and Miss Elizabeth Metherell; the committee did the train-bearer's part, and the rest of us brought up the rear.

In the line were our class advisor, Professor and Mrs. H. Willard Reninger, Dean Lydia I. Jones, Professor and Mrs. Joseph McCulloch, and Registrar Clemens P. Steimle.

As usual the Juniors are more prominent in school activities, but they always are, yes? With the societies and extra-curriculars floating around—we Juniors picked out the clouds—and haven't come down yet.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

We are Sophomores! With what a superior air we can gaze upon those verdant beings in whose ranks we once stood! Now, though it be only a year since we so proudly displayed our brilliant shades of green, we can barely condescend to even imagine that we were ever enrolled in such an inferior class. Oh, do not think for a moment that we have not reason to feel this superiority, for haven't we for a full year carefully absorbed all the knowledge, culture, and dignity that our Alma Mater has offered us? Indeed during our Freshmen days we loyally attended countless freshman skits, teas, and mixers, and positively swarmed to every lecture given for our benefit.

When, as Sophomores, the day came when officers must be chosen we found that we had shown such rare judgment as Freshmen in choosing a leader worthy of guiding our class that there was no need to look further, so Joe Bradley was re-elected to be our chief for another year. Our other officers, as elected, were: Frances LeForge, vice-president; Ruth Poole, secretary; Kenneth Hawk, treasurer. Professor Pray was chosen as our faculty advisor to succeed "Bing" Brown.

It did not take long for the members of the class of '32 to pick up the reins that had been dropped the year before and soon began to show that they had lost none of the spirit nor capability they had shown as Freshmen. They resumed their duties with so much zeal and efficiency that soon they became outstanding in athletics, debate, dramatics, and scholarship.

However, there was one event that stood out above all others. That was the organization of the Gold Feather Club for all Sophomore girls. It was organized with the help of the Women's League and immediately it set out to accomplish things under the leadership of Jane Bachman. Its members having suffered the pangs of Freshman immaturity only the year before, were well prepared to enlighten their younger sisters with volumes of instructions on assembly manners and all other traditional customs—observed and otherwise. The club also took charge of the winter and spring Big Sister activities; and always when a program needed something jolly the Gold Feathers were ready with a skit or something to furnish laughs. So in the future though you see hosts of Gold Feathers floating about the campus, you will know that the class of '32 were the first Sophomores to acquire them!

IVY DAY

Ivy Day is one of the most impressive and beautiful ceremonies of Commencement Week. It consists of a solemn march about the campus by the Sophomore girls bidding farewell to the dear old College Halls.

The girls are dressed in cap and gown and carry strings of green and white bunting on their shoulders. Originally ropes of ivy were carried, but since it soon lost its freshness, the bunting in the college colors was substituted.

After the farewell speeches have been delivered to each building the Ivy Day oration is delivered from the steps of the Administration Building, and then the ivy is planted by the vice-president of the Sophomore class who then passes the silver trowel on to the vice-president of the Freshman class—thus the tradition is perpetuated. Then the halls of every building are made to re-echo to the strain of the Ivy Day Song:

The Ivy twines on castle walls,
And on the towers of fame,
Oh, Alma Mater may it cling
To the gray walls for aye.
Its leaves will tell thee of our love
When we are far away,
M. S. N. C. we bring to thee
This loving proof today.

ELIZABETH KELLER

BERNICE COOPER

Secretary-Treasurer

As poets and authors send their contributions to various publishing companies to be bound and later issued, high schools send the results of their labors to various colleges to receive the finishing touches before being spread throughout the world. Like novels, these young people receive a series of polishings and corrections, with always the aim of making them more desirable to humanity. Some manuscripts may go through the entire process and on publication be identical to the original copy; while others turn out to be another story throughout. Lucky is the father that knows his son after the boy has completed his college education.

On the twenty-sixth day of September, 1929, a great mass of us young people came to Ypsilanti with the aim of going through this long tedious process of preparation for our debut into the world. Many of our numbers were of the strong well balanced type represented in the classics. Others were more inclined to be of the romantic type; while the remainder could only be typified by blank verse. Chaos reigned supreme the first day while we, like little leaflets from a book, fluttered thither and yon in the breeze that is always found in a college town.

Immediately on receiving the material for Chapter XXXIII for the History of Michigan State Normal College, President McKenny assumed charge as Editor-in-Chief of this great publishing company. He at once delegated several members of his staff to sort out this hurly-burly of human material. After a few enjoyable speeches in which the staff members told us what a wonderful race we young people were, they gave us a series of tests to determine our ability and inability. The reason was to arrange us in classes according to our knowledge. Since the classics type is most desirable and need fewest corrections, all in that group were placed in more advanced sections than the other nine-tenths of us who, at the time, were so infatuated with the wonderful weather and pretty girls we cared naught if we were ever classified. All week we loafed around and had a glorious time. Drifting usually in pairs, we dreamed of the glories of college life and wished the girl friend back home could see us.

Like all air castles, ours came tumbling down, crushing our miniature kingdoms. The veteran manuscripts, upper-classmen, had returned. To differentiate us from the preceding chapters, we were required to wear small green caps or pots, and nothing pleased our seniors more than to see these pots go skyward by human power (through our own efforts.) Not satisfied with making us hoist our "chapeaux" each time we should happen to see one of them, the members of Chapter XXXII made several of us swim in the campus fountain to their great amusement. The reason was perhaps that they may have thought we were fish and would enjoy an evening in the pool, or they might have thought we were of the dry type of literature and needed a little H₂O. As everyone knows, turning is not confined only to worms; fish also turn. By the next night we had turned and as a result of our turning, we persuaded a group of sophomores to hold a swimming contest around the fountain. When the evening was over there were no signs of a "dry article" in Chapter-XXXII.

Because of the great amount of fighting between the two chapters, XXXII and XXXIII, the authorities decided to hold the traditional fall games three weeks earlier than planned. In these games we proved that we came to make History as well as learn it, by overwhelming our more experienced elders in every phase of the battle. Like our forefathers in the American Revolution, we will long be remembered.

After winning our battle for independence, we immediately began an era of reconstruction. Forgotten books were dragged out of the rubbish heap, notebooks were opened again after a long rest; everywhere were signs of activity. We became scholars. Our pages that were so clean and neat soon became dirty and "dog-ears" and ink blotches. It is a sure sign that we are receiving a great deal of attention from our wise overseers.

Though some of our classmates may leave us and new friends join us, we will continue to do our best to live up to the standards of our editor, President McKenny and his likeable staff of assistants; so that when we are put into circulation as Chapter XXXIII of our dear Alma Mater, Michigan State Normal College, our publishers will feel proud to claim us as their products.

THE PINE TREES

Solemn priests among the trees
Are the pines against the sky,
Wafting incense on the breeze
Like a censer swinging high.
Grave old pines in stately row
Make a sound that's like the sea—
Palm-like branches moving slow,
Rushing, rushing, endlessly.

PURPLE LUPINE

With lace leaf and straight proud stalk
The purple lupine grows
Beside the wandering country road
Where fresh and swift the west wind blows.

I gather it in graceful sheaf—
The shaded sprays are fair.
Their heritage of wind and rain
Has given them a gallant air.

Arranged within a low gray bowl
They light my sunless room.
Oh wayside flower, shall you miss,
The sky, and the pirate bee's wild zoom?

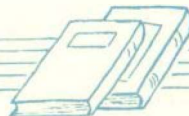

THE LOST LAND

Where is the land of Smithereens?
Does anybody know
The land of broken soup tureens,
The land where the cracked cups go?

I've looked on all the maps I've found.
Among their pinks and greens
I've scanned the names from Perth to Mound
But none says, "Smithereens".

There surely must be such a land;
I can't have been misled.
I smashed a glass with careless hand—
"It's gone to Smithereens," they said.

Pi Kappa Delta, which originated at Ottawa University, Kansas, and Ripon College, Wisconsin, in 1913, now numbers one hundred twenty-one chapters, located in all sections of the country. It is the largest honor forensic fraternity in the United States. Its purpose is to encourage public speaking in colleges by extending formal recognition to those students who obtain an unusual excellence.

The Michigan Epsilon Chapter was installed on the local campus in June, 1921. Only those students whose platform proficiency is such that they are chosen to participate in inter-college debates or oratory are eligible to membership.

As this goes to the Aurora, plans are going forward for a vigorous participation in the contests of the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention to be held at Wichita, Kansas, March 31 to April 4. The chapter proposes to send nine delegates,—a men's debate team, a women's debate team, two orators, an extemporaneous speaker, and two faculty members. This event will be the outstanding feature of the year's activities.

KAPPA DELTA PI

PI CHAPTER

Michigan State Normal College

Installed 1922

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honorary and professional fraternity in education, organized at the University of Illinois in 1909, and incorporated in 1911. The fraternity is composed of sixty-two local chapters with a total membership of over twelve thousand, and a Laureate Chapter having a membership of twenty nationally known educators.

There are now two chapters in Michigan; Pi chapter which was established in June, 1922 at Michigan State Normal College, and Beta Iota chapter of Western State Teachers' College at Kalamazoo which was installed in 1929.

The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage in its members a higher degree of consecration to social service by fostering high professional and scholarship standards, and by recognizing outstanding service in the field of education.

The qualifications for membership to Kappa Delta Pi are as follows: full junior standing, general scholarship of a grade in the upper quartile of the institution, the indication that there will be continued interest in the field of education, and the manifestation of desirable social qualities.

The Eighth Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi convened at the Ritz-Carlton in Atlantic City February twenty-fifth and sixth with delegates representing each of the sixty-two chapters ranging from California to Maine and from Florida to Oregon. The greater part of the convention was occupied with the business of the national organization. The official Convocation Dinner was a most impressive event; Dorothy Canfield Fisher spoke to more than two hundred guests on the subject "Learn or Perish" in which she discussed very interestingly adult education.

The Varsity "Y" Club was organized primarily to keep the men who had taken part in Michigan State Normal College athletics in touch with athletic activities after they had left college. The organizers also hoped to make former athletes of the college feel more at home when returning for an athletic event. To more completely foster this feeling, graduating members of the Varsity Club, and past graduates of the Club, are given identification cards which will admit them to any athletic event on our Campus.

The "Y" Club has accomplished all of the original hopes and it intends to attain greater achievements in the years to come. The club has grown in significance and influence, and now its expressions of opinion are a factor in determining the athletic policies of our college.

It is the custom of the "Y" Club to sponsor an annual boxing and wrestling tournament. The tournaments thus far have been very successful, and they are yearly growing in popularity.

Take a long look at the faces above and then dash around school and see for yourself just what twenty years of progress has done for our dear faculty. In order you will find Mr. McKay in the bloom of youth; Miss Goddard placid, as usual; Mr. Norris, with a Hoover collar; Mr. Gorton, scared of the bird in the camera; Mr. Ford behind the heavy bush; Miss Blount, when she still had faith in the abilities of freshmen; Mrs. Sabourin in the Johanna Alpermann stage of her career; Miss Hintz before Mr. McKay uttered the word that changed it all; Mrs. Burton, when dancing students were the least of her troubles; Mr. Lyman, evidently in a low mood because some square root failed to check; Miss Wise at the time when hunting positions for would-be teachers didn't coincide with any of her plans; Miss Rankin, freshly starched and primed up; Miss Buell, sporting a keen pair of pince-nez; Mr. Alexander, with a musical bump that would make any phrenologist screech with glee.

1930 marks the tenth anniversary of the Women's League of the Michigan State Normal College. During these ten years the League's family has increased from 500 to nearly 1500 girls. The League has in the process of growth so outgrown its old quarters in a corner of the Dean's office that it is now moving into a new colonial home.

The League, like all good housekeepers, has accumulated many valuable possessions. Some of these are material in nature, as our tea service and scholarship cup, while others are the traditions which live in the minds and hearts of every girl; the Freshman Frolic with dancing and stunts for the Big and Little Sisters, the Council Dinner with talent displayed in songs and yells, the teas with their great variety of settings.

New members coming into the League each year have brought new interests and ideas, altering the old and formulating new traditions. Travel Club, Book-a-Month Club, Gold Feather and Viventes are recent additions to our treasured store.

MEN'S UNION

OFFICERS

JOSEPH MORAN	President
OLEN BECK	Vice-President
JOSEPH PRAY	Secretary
GEORGE MUELLICH	Treasurer

The present year has been one of unusual activity and accordingly of success for the Men's Union of the Michigan State Normal College. This regularity, this activity, and this success is due mainly to the efforts of Joe Moran who had the necessary push to create the energy to carry this year's Men's Union to unprecedented heights.

The Union was under way from the start when representatives met the Freshmen men and guided their participation in Freshmen Week. At this time the new men were duly introduced to the Men's Union when—in accordance with a new custom—the Freshmen were given Union pins. This action has the effect of showing the new men that they have a definite place in the activities of the college and are welcome to share the privileges and the responsibilities of the Union.

As the football season progressed it became apparent that our athletic teams were without a suitable or distinctive nickname. In response to this agitation, the Union offered a prize to the student who might submit the name which a faculty jury thought appropriate. The name "Hurons" was chosen from several hundred selections and to both Miss Gretchen Borst and Mr. George Hanner go the honor of the choice.

The high point in the business of the Union was the sponsoring of the campus migration to Kalamazoo. An unprecedented crowd of five hundred and twelve rooters left by train, paraded through the streets of Kazoo, saw a thrilling football game, and returned happily after having partaken of the pleasures of the best trip the Union has ever undertaken. May there ever be such trips as that one. Red Shaughnessey and Joe Pray were active in promoting this event.

Homecoming was the next big event on the program. Wes Rea started things when he produced a stirring pep meeting which was followed by the annual "theater party". Farmsworth Gorton directed the "most colorful" parade, led by the band, through the main streets of the city, Saturday morning. An excellent—we won—game and the football banquet in the evening brought to a close the festivities.

A new annual event was introduced to the college campus this year when the Men's Union and the Women's League co-sponsored a Kollege Kermess. Bob LeAnderson headed the men's activities in the venture which cleared over two hundred and fifty dollars for the Union Building at the same time providing a colorful carnival for the thorough enjoyment of fifteen hundred teachers and students.

The winter term's activities climaxed in the annual Men's Mixer held, as usual, in the gymnasium. Jesse Batcheldor's committee served up a copious feed of hot dogs, cider, apples, and doughnuts which was quickly devoured to the tune of the band. Farmsworth Gorton, master of ceremonies, then introduced a varied and boisterous entertainment consisting of excellent band music, the gym team, popular music by the Manual Cigar girls and a well-known ventriloquist. Everyone went home in the highest spirits except a few who felt vague internal misgivings testifying to excess in the gastronomical part of the entertainment.

Perhaps the force that contributed most to the strength of the Men's Union this year was the work of the program committee—Joe Moran, Neil Gray, Allan Sawdy, and Raymond Stites. Meetings were held regularly with a half an hour devoted to a short address by some speaker, usually from our campus. These programs formed the backbone of the meetings and were very well received by the members. Talks were given by Professor Pray—Americanization, Professor Alexander—Formation of a Men's Glee Club; Professor Fagerstrom—Abraham Lincoln; Miss Wise—Work of the Appointment Bureau; and Colonel Miller, from the University of Michigan—On the Guns that Bombed Paris during the World War. These people gave willingly of their time and knowledge and the Union certainly appreciates their kindness.

As the Aurora goes to press, interest points to the annual Barbeque and Cap Night when the whole college will turn out for the feast, the spring games between the sophs and freshmen, and the Cap Night ceremonies.

And so, with the closing of Cap Night festivities, the work of the Men's Union ceases for a period to be taken up anew by the ever changing personnel of college life.

THE LITTLE TOWNS OF MICHIGAN

The little towns of Michigan that nestle in her trees.
 The greyish hue—the morning dew
 When Night her prisoner frees.
 The little towns of Michigan in glory all their own,
 Will be content—when Life is spent
 And earthliness is prone.

Oh, little towns of Michigan that hover in the vale
 Thy filmy trees—and wafting breeze
 And forests' lulling wail.
 Oh, little towns of Michigan to thee I give my soul
 The whistling pine—the clinging vine
 And numerous rocking knoll.

It's little towns of Michigan that claim the sparkling springs
 Small rivulets—and stones of jet
 And isles of mossy rings.
 When travelers gaze upon the land and see the grasses green
 It's not for them—to claim a gem
 More beauteous ever seen.

The little towns of Michigan have velvet rugs of moss
 And in ecstasy—they use the tree
 To hold on high suns gloss.
 When little towns of Michigan claim Natures finest art
 And pillars high—support the sky
 It's Mother Nature's heart!

ON BEING METHODICAL

Another moment slipped away. I sat and tried to be methodical.
 I thought out all the intricate details of being methodical.
 And then!

A sun bathed cloud of gorgeous hue
 A blade of grass and a bit of dew—
 A golden cone and a busy bee,
 All sought my soul—enraptured me.
 Then I found my wings,—and a body light—
 And a voice that sings—and I took to flight.

Another moment slipped away. I sat and tried to be methodical.
 I thought out all the intricate details of being methodical—
 but I was quite—too tired!

SPEECH ACTIVITIES

Activities in speech have been carried forward jointly by the speech faculty, consisting of Professor Lathers and Associate Professor Stowe in dramatics and interpretative reading, and Professor McKay and Assistant Professor Wood in public speaking; and the honor forensic society, Pi Kappa Delta, thru its Forensic Board: Richard Robb, president; James Latture, men's vice-president; Mary McGill women's vice-president; Alleen Gates, fraternity secretary-treasurer; Evelyn Krasney, forensic secretary.

The speech activities of the latter part of the last year which are not recorded in the following pages were the Freshmen Oratorical Contest in which Emily Case took first place, and the annual college play, "Alice Sit By the Fire", by J. M. Barrie.

INTERPRETATIVE READING

In May, 1924, Michigan State Normal College and Bowling Green Normal held the first Interpretative Reading Contest at Ypsilanti. The score was 23-40 in our favor. In May, 1929, Michigan State Normal College went to Bowling Green and lost by one point 31-32. Ruth Matheson, Caroline McDowell and Irene Waldorf represented M. S. N. C. By mutual agreement it was decided to eliminate judging and to hold a joint Recital instead. Consequently, on December 16, Bowling Green sent representatives to Ypsilanti to take part in a Reading Recital with the representatives of M. S. N. C. who were Evelyn Turnbull, Carl Oehmke, May L. Jones, and Cecil Beglinger. These contests and recitals were under the direction of Marion Franklin Stowe, Associate Professor of Speech.

HAPPY AS KINGS

Strolling with my sister down Chicago's famous Michigan Boulevard, we were watching the People, Shop-Windows, and other interesting Things,—but especially the People, who are most interesting—and my sister remarked:

“Do you ever notice how They all hurry past? So Few take their Time, and so Few have a calm, pleasant, facial expression! Most of the Men's eyes are squinty, like a Miser's, as if they were oppressed by business that they cannot look up at the sky, or over to Lake Michigan, and get an eyeful of GOD.”

“And note as much,” I added, “how few women look really contented and happy!”

Then, in relief, we turned to our usual pastime, sorting out the cheerful folks.

You must have been made thoughtful by the attention-compelling remark of the intelligent young Chinese servant (in that unique one-act play, “Struggle and Flight,” in “Manuscripts” Magazine) who noticed that we Americans are like the mouse in the laboratory oxygen tank—“jump aroun' fas' and soon die,” while the ideal Oriental mind takes everything more calmly, faces life like the placid, impassive face of the big Buddha, and finds more satisfaction in life than we.

How often we scorn the “somber-eyed dreamer” who yet may be finding much more practical joy in life than we who boast of being acutely practical, very awake, and quite business-like.

To find JOY in all things that can possibly contain any joy, and to accept sorrow and adversity calmly, as our Oriental friend accepts them,—is an Ideal. “The tree of patience is bitter, but it bears sweet fruits.”

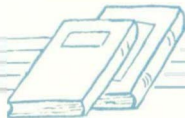

To love Music, books, art, science, and Nature, her marvels, and endless wonders—in themselves enough to keep us all—old and young—wide-eyed, child-eyed, open-eared and radiantly alive with wonder and astonishment—is an Ideal.

(At four years of age, in 1910, I saw that phenomena, Halley's comet—and if I had no other thing to live for, I should like to live until 1986 when that comet will return to blaze in our skies. As for Tomorrow, I shall take my little 115-power microscope on a hike with me down to a lazy creek not far from here, and see a jungle of queer animals and plants in a drop of stagnant water—paramoecia, hydra, algae, and myriad others.)

Childish as it may seem, I still treasure it, and I shall always treasure it—one of the best things that Robert Louis Stevenson ever wrote:

“The world is so full of a number of things,
I'm sure we should all be as happy as kings.”

MUSIC

MICHIGAN STATE NORMAL COLLEGE CHOIR

“An enthusiastic audience that virtually filled the auditorium left no doubt through its applause that it approved the singing for which the choir has become famous.”

—Detroit Free Press, Dec. 16, 1929.

“Mr. Alexander always accomplishes the utmost with the available material but on Sunday the results quite surpassed those of previous years. How he achieves such technical precision in the matter of attacks, releases, crescendoes, etc. in such a short time is a mystery, but he does do amazing things with these young students.”

More progress has been made in the last year by the Normal Band under the direction of D. Chester Ryan than it has made in the last few years. It does not take a large number of men to accomplish good deeds, but members who are willing to co-operate with one another and give their whole-hearted support to the enterprise. They have striven for a high goal with their few members, and have succeeded in accomplishing their desire by hard efficient work.

The Kalamazoo trip and the men's mixer are two feathers in their cap and should be complimented with thanks from the college. They are looking forward to a season of broadcasting the results of the year's work.

The Public School Music Club was officially organized in 1917, and today takes a worthy place among the other organizations on the campus. With the passing of each successive year the club true to its tradition, has maintained its high standard of excellence and loyalty to the best interests of the college. Its membership includes the graduating class of each year in public school music education who initiate the sophomores during the spring term. It is also customary to meet the freshmen socially, thus creating a spirit of good fellowship among all classes of students specializing in this department.

Regular programs in interest of public school music, interspersed with social evenings are given bi-monthly by the students. Such topics as, the music educational radio talks, the development of instrumental music in the school, children's concerts with the symphony orchestra, and the Music Supervisor's National Conference, are discussed.

It is the purpose of the club through a common interest, to broaden the students' knowledge in the various phases of school music education, to stimulate a professional spirit, and to further social friendship among its members.

The History Club was organized in 1913. The main purpose of the club is to arouse interest and enthusiasm in the work; also to bring the members and the faculty of the History Department into closer relationship.

During the present year meetings have been held every two weeks, once every four weeks at Roosevelt Cafeteria, and the rest of the time at the home of Professor Pray. So far this year one trip has been made to Detroit in the College bus to see "Journey's End" played at the Shubert-Detroit.

The club was one of the organizations that took part in the Kollege Kermess, a new project undertaken to make money for the Union Building. Their contribution was an old-fashioned gathering which closed with a review of the Virginia Reel. Many beautiful and comical costumes were on display. The annual Washington Banquet was held at Roosevelt Cafeteria. Of course the club will have its spring excursion again this year, although no plans have been made as yet.

The English Club is an organization open to all students majoring in English. The club aims to bring together students of like interests for social and literary benefits. It also aims to present some constructive literary program to the college at large. This year the club presented Rose Fyleman in a recital of some of her poems. A contest is also being sponsored this year for the best poem written by any student on our campus.

The Minerva Literary Society is an organization of college girls that provides opportunity for expression of literary interests. Meetings are held bi-monthly with an annual banquet in the spring term.

This year we have chosen to study modern drama and have read both one and three act plays. Among others, John Galsworthy's "Silver Box" was read and discussed.

The Physical Education Club is composed of the entire body of students and teachers in the Physical Education Department. During the year the group has carried on an active program of monthly meetings and entertainments. The annual fall weiner roast was held inside on account of the weather. Games, and class stunts entertained the group. The faculty were arrested, tried and convicted of scandalous conduct by a court presided over by Bob LeAnderson.

During the winter term one meeting was turned over to an evening of winter sports on the skating rink and toboggan slide. Afterwards refreshments were served in the gymnasium.

The bi-annual circus put on by the club since 1921 was this year a financial and organizational success. The wild-west show was something new in Normal circuses. The rest of the program was made up of tumbling, apparatus, and swinging ladder acts, clogs and clowning. The proceeds of the circus amounted to four hundred dollars. These proceeds were used to send a representative to the Boston Conference of the National Physical Education Association. Carolyn Carlson was elected by the club and returned with many new ideas for the furthering of club activities.

One hundred and twenty-five dollars were voted to the W. P. Bowen Memorial Fund. The fund was begun by friends of the former department head. The total sum amounted to seven hundred and twenty-five dollars in March. It is a loan fund for Junior and Senior Physical Education students.

The club has maintained the publication of the "Javelin", a newspaper primarily for the alumni of the department.

The Laonian Dramatic Society was founded in 1913 in Miss Pearce's drama classes. The club devoted most of the time to the study of the technique of the drama. In recent years the society has given plays for assemblies and also a few public performances.

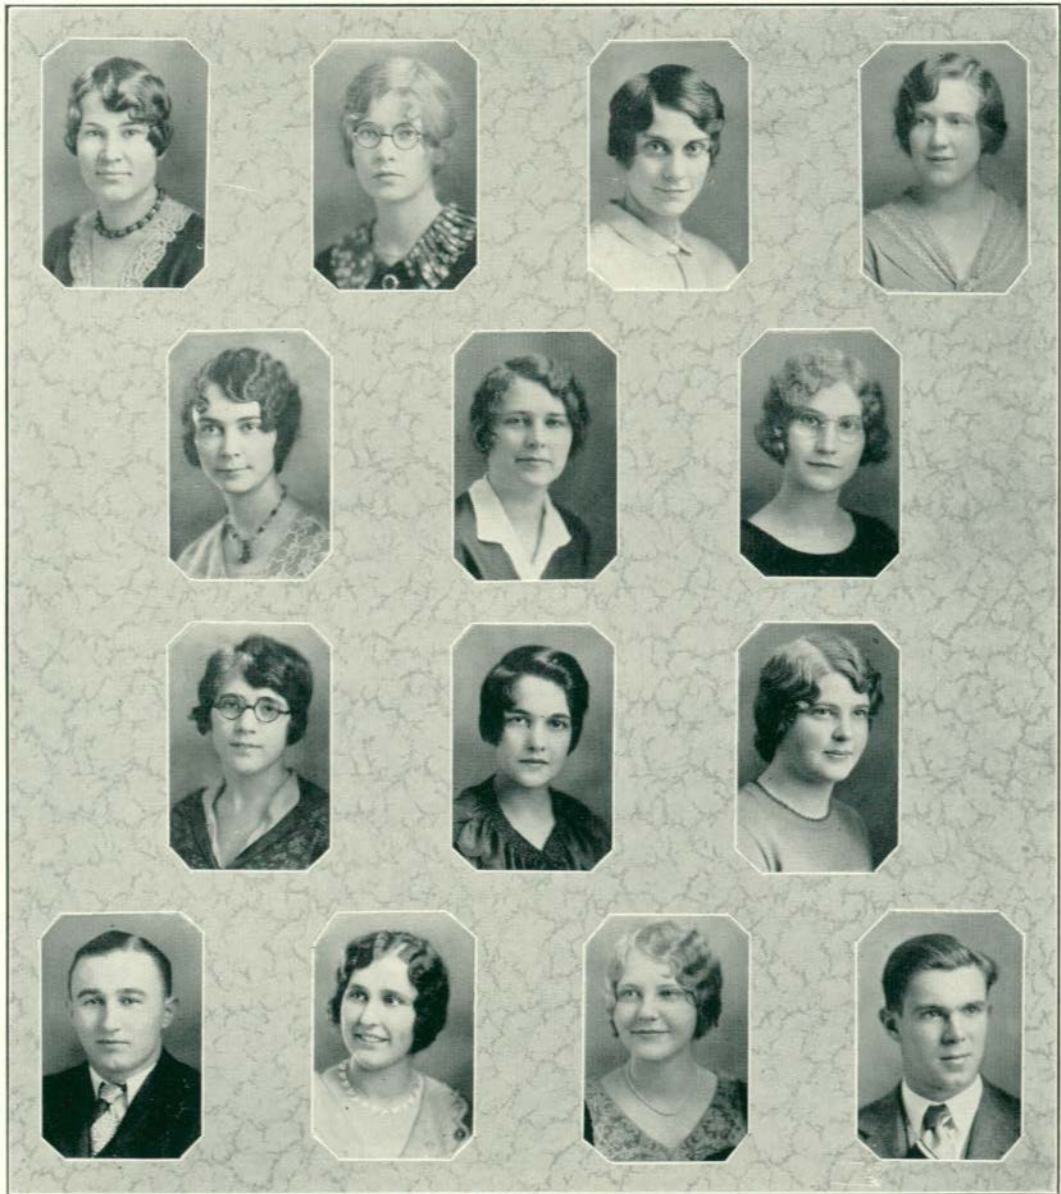

During the winter term of this year, five of the new members of the society presented the play "Two Crooks and a Lady" for a Women's League Assembly.

Three of the members of the club took part in the winter term all-college play, "A Prince There Was."

The Secondary Education Club was organized in 1925 under the patronage of Professor Metcalf for the purpose of bringing together in an educational and social way the students of Michigan State Normal College who are specializing in high school education. At the meetings of the club, problems in secondary education are discussed by speakers who have had experience in the field, and social gatherings are held.

The annual banquet of the club was held February 19 with Wm. Clark Trow of the University of Michigan speaking on character testing.

On November 15, 1923, a small group of industrious mathematicians gathered to form a club of all those students interested in the subject. These founders dedicated the new club to the advancement of scientific study of mathematics. That includes everything on the earth from the mathematics in the making of tin cans to the mathematics in the study of the universes. The programs are of a nature that they will interest anyone who cares to come. Two well known speakers spoke to the members on the Einstein Theory and the Curriculum Construction at the University of Michigan. These speakers were Professors George Rainich and Louis Hopkins, respectively.

The largest event of the year with respect to the Euclidean Society was the annual banquet on Thursday, March 27th. This banquet and the spring picnic are two of the main features of the mathematics students' year.

The Sodalitas Latina was organized in 1900 to promote a further interest in the study of classical culture and civilization. It was also organized to arouse a greater interest in classical studies and to aid the future teachers of ancient languages. The club has grown to be one of the largest and most active departmental clubs on the campus.

This year the club has studied the poet, Virgil, as this year is the two thousandth anniversary of his birth. Many meetings have been devoted to Virgil and in this way the members of the club have become acquainted with Virgil's works, his country, and Virgil, the man.

The club also enjoyed the speakers at the classical section of the Mid-Year Conference. This served as one of the meetings.

Sodalitas also adopted "dutch treats" which the members greatly enjoyed. In the spring term the club held its annual banquet and spring picnic.

The Campus Club O. E. S. has been organized for several years and is for the purpose of bringing the fellow O. E. S. members on the Campus into closer contact with each other.

The club is closely connected with the Ypsilanti Chapter O. E. S. and puts on the initiatory work for the local chapter in January. Club members are always welcome to visit the chapter throughout the year.

Other interesting traditions are our Christmas trip to the O. E. S. Villa at Adrian and our Spring party.

The club holds business meetings every two weeks alternating with social meetings generally in the form of bridge parties.

THE PRESBYTERIAN STUDENT'S SOCIETY

■ This has been an unusually busy and prosperous year for the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church. The activities began when nine delegates were sent to the International Convention at Kansas City where they exchanged ideas with twelve thousand other young people. At home the Endeavor Society has conducted weekly devotional meetings and has presented some speakers of unusual merit, among whom was Dr. A. B. Dodd of China. It has sponsored a concert by the University of Michigan Glee Club, and has redecorated the dining rooms of the church in which many dinners and parties have been given. The Society has tried to carry out its purpose which is to provide a congenial religious atmosphere for the Presbyterian students of the college.

THE CONGREGATIONAL STUDENT GROUP

The Congregational Student Group has been organized for five years. It has been one aim of the organization to give the college students a church home and church life as nearly like that of his own community as is possible, and at the same time to help him grow in his religious life. Constant effort is made to consider the individual student and to this end the church people welcome students not only to the services but also to their homes.

THE LUTHERAN STUDENTS' CLUB

Under the capable direction of Professor Clarence M. Loesell, the Lutheran Students' Club enjoyed its most successful year since its organization three years ago. The purpose of the organization is to unite the Lutheran students of the college in a bond of friendship. The past year has proved to be one of delightful experiences, in which all the members have worked with a splendid cooperative spirit. This success promises even more enjoyable meetings for the next year.

THE WESLEYAN GUILD

The Wesleyan Guild, the organization for Methodist students, has a student cabinet of twelve or more members who with the director of student activities, plan the program for the year. The program for the past year included a discussion group with a fellowship supper following the Vesper service, a group of study classes on Sunday mornings, and Friday night gatherings at the church with special parties occasionally. Special activities have been carried on by the social service and deputation groups and the drama club has presented a number of short plays. The group has participated in a number of inter-church activities. The student work is maintained by the Wesley Foundation to promote religious training and the development of leadership and fellowship among students.

BAPTIST STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Baptist Student Association has been very successful in its efforts to provide a church home for the Baptist students of the college this year. Our new Student Secretary, Miss Lillian Nordquest has done splendidly and we would like to express our appreciation of her efforts. We are glad that she will be back with us again next year. The activities of the group have consisted chiefly of the Evensong, Sunday night, Friendly Hour at Starkweather, and the regular monthly parties. At Evensong a few outside speakers have been heard but a majority of the programs provided by the students. Questions of interest have been discussed and thought about. Although we have not always come to definite conclusions, we feel that the discussions have been of great value.

The purpose of the Y. W. C. A. is to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. It tries to make possible a realization of this life for all people.

This year the group has sponsored an International Fellowship for the large number of foreign-born students on our campus. At Christmas time boxes were sent to a village in Tennessee, to the strikers' families in North Carolina, and the crippled children in the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The Young Men's Christian Association is an active influence in the lives of many men on the campus. This influence will reach into a wider sphere, and be more challenging each year if the determination of the new officers can be realized.

Every Tuesday evening a group of students, sometimes small, sometimes large, meets in the "Y" room. There, very earnest discussions on some of our present day problems are held as the men try to think through the situation to a proper Christian attitude.

The foundation for the work of the next year is being considered so that the new 1930 cabinet shall be able to attend the state officers' training conference which is held at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. It is hoped that memories of inspiring talks, clear, challenging thinking, and moon-light waters will be a part of their experience.

Prominent among the activities of the Y. M. C. A. this year were the lively discussions held over Conklin's "The Direction of Human Evolution." Through cooperation with the student groups forming the Religious Council we aided in holding the week-end Fellowship Conference on the campus. Speakers of unusual talent were secured for this event. Reverend George Collins, Baptist university pastor at Madison, Wisconsin; Dean Irma Voigt of Ohio University; Dean Thomas Graham of Oberlin, Ohio; and Winifred Chappell from the Methodist Federation for Social Service were the speakers.

The Bessie Leach Priddy House at 125 N. Hamilton was established in the fall of 1924. This cooperative house was made possible through the contribution made by the Pan-Hellenic group. For six years it has been the home of twenty girls.

The house is run entirely on a cooperative plan, both economically and socially. The girls enjoy home privileges such as not possible in other houses. Initiative, responsibility, household management, and social adjustment are sponsored under this system.

On Home Coming Day the Bessie Leach Priddy House was awarded a two pound box of candy as second prize for the best decorated house. Other social activities of the house have been a Faculty Dinner and a Faculty Tea.

The Letro Society is a fraternal organization for the students who are enrolled in the Rural Supervisory Curriculum. It was founded in 1927-28 to provide a variety of social activities for the members on the Campus, to establish and maintain a high standard of scholarship, and to provide opportunity for the development of the qualities of leadership. It maintains active relationship with one hundred and twenty-five Alumni by means of a quarterly news letter and an annual reunion banquet.

THE GOLD FEATHER

The Gold Feather, a club sponsored by the Women's League and open to all Sophomore women, was organized with a three-fold program; social and cultural advancement and service. A Big Sister program for the new girls in the winter and spring terms, Christmas decorations in the corridors and favors at the Kresge Ball, and interesting skits and programs on Etiquette are evidences of the Gold Feather Service. The Sophomore Signary with its interesting programs has been responsible for the growth in cultural knowledge and friendly spirit of every Gold Feather.

PAN - HELLENIC

The local Pan-Hellenic organization has been active on this campus since 1926. Its members are representatives from both local and national sororities. Offices are filled by a system of rotation. The officers of the year of 1929-30 have been as follows:

KATHRYN MCFARLANE, Sigma Nu Phi President

THELMA WRIGHT, Alpha Sigma Tau Recording Secretary

LUCILE ESHENRODER, Kappa Psi Treasurer

JANET McALLISTER, Alpha Mu Sigma
Corresponding Secretary

At an intersorority dinner held, in the fall term, the winter term, and the spring term, a loving cup was presented to the sorority whose scholarship rated the highest for the preceding term. The cup was presented to Theta Lambda Sigma in the fall term, and to Kappa Mu Delta in the winter term. The dinners were successful in bringing a closer relationship between sororities.

An important accomplishment for the year was the installation of a uniform accounting system to be used by all sororities who do not have a national required form.

The organization has been very successfully advised by Dean Beal during the fall term and by Dean Norris during the winter and spring terms. Miss Ada Nortor has held an office in the Association of Educational Sororities as Director of Local Pan-Hellenic.

The fraternity has enjoyed its second year with Dr. Lyman as Patron. The pledge party, winter banquet and winter party have proved to be high lights on the fraternity's social calendar of the past year. The boys have shown a keen interest in all college and fraternity activities on the campus. Seven new men have been initiated into the fraternity thus far, including Mr. D. L. Quirk as honorary member.

HOMECOMING
Will we ever forget our 1929 Home Coming with its gayly decorated houses, parade and football game?

OUR CAMPUS

After a long summer vacation it was good to come back to the familiar scenes of the M. S. N. C. campus once more and to resume our work and play with old and new friends.

NEW LIBRARY

One of the most important events of the present year was the opening of the new library. We are no longer suffering from eyestrain due to poor lights, or from a bad disposition due to tears in cur best silk hose.

CO-ED PROM

The winter term ushered in the fancy dress events, first the Co-ed Prom with costumes cleverer than ever before, and second, the faculty entertainment which will long be remembered for its "Miles of Smiles."

COLLEGE CIRCUS

The biennial circus put on by the Physical Education Club was a credit to their efforts. Every act was well planned and executed. The last act, the daring leap from the top of the gym finished it in true professional style.

May this last page of our feature section serve to remind you of those care-free college days.

COACHES

“Behind the team stands the coach.” He is the man who must see that his men get the credit for a successful year, and he is the man who takes the brunt of defeat. He is the man who must make into a smooth working unit, each group of men who bid for places on the teams which will go on the athletic field to uphold the glory of the college. He is the man who must foresee the situations that his wards will be called upon to meet and he must be the man to prepare them to meet each squarely and in a truly fair manner. He must instill in each man that sense of fairness that makes for clean and honest athletics. If a coach, regardless of the games his team has won or lost, has made each one of his team members an honest and a true athlete, then he has added to and upheld the spirit of clean amateur athletics.

To our coaches we owe the utmost respect and appreciation for they are the men who have developed the teams that have, in the past year, brought added laurels to Ypsi. These are the men who were the real leaders of each team—the men who have won the regard of the student body because of their firm purpose to ever hold the spirit of clean play above the spirit to win at all costs. And in their firmness of purpose they have made each man who came into contact with them a better and truer athlete. They are to be honored and congratulated.

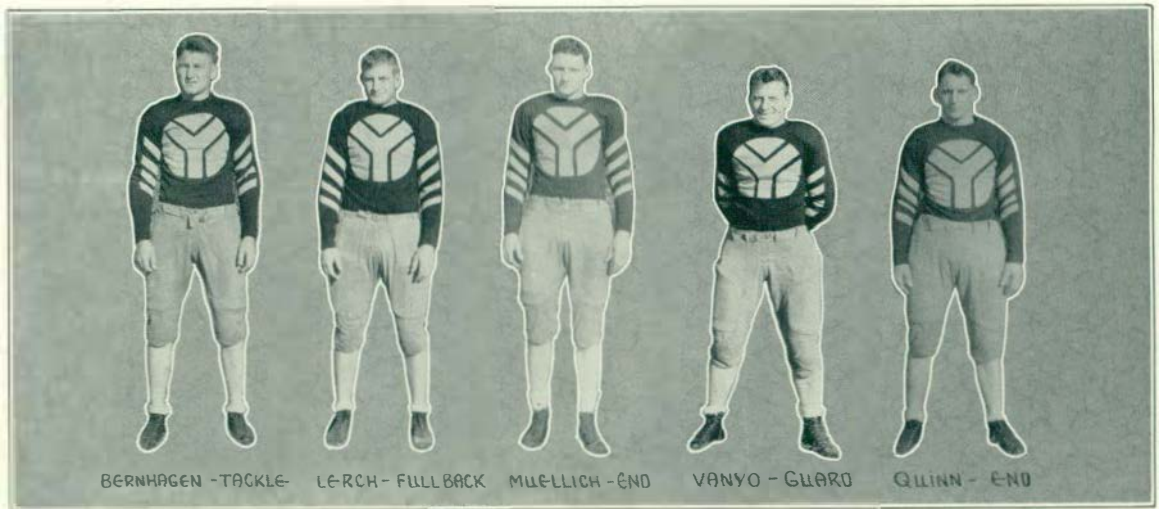

CLASS MANAGERS

HAROLD HALL	Intramural Manager
FRANCIS O'BRIEN	Senior Manager
WEB SMITH	Junior Manager
CHARLES BENSON	Sophomore Manager
NORMAN ALLEN	Freshman Manager

Each year the classes pick to represent their group, one man who has both a good athletic record and the ability to manage the teams that will represent these classes in intramural sports. The duty of these class managers is to recruit players from the general student body and to coach and direct the teams on the field. In this way the men students, who do not compete in varsity sports, are given opportunity to participate in athletics.

The 1929 season was one of both joy and sorrow to the Ypsi football fans. During the season five games were won, two tied, and one was lost. In the conference, however, three games were won and one tied with Western State to tie up the title race.

Ypsi's season started out in great style when the local boys, before 3000 fans took Bowling Green into camp to a 34 to 7 tune.

YPSILANTI 27, DEPAUL UNIVERSITY 0; OCTOBER 12

At Soldier's Field in Chicago, Ypsi's warriors trimmed the powerful DePaul team in a 27 to 0 game. Here, true to form, Andy Vanyo, our star guard, looked like an All-American and played with a team that on that day could have made any team in the country wave the white flag.

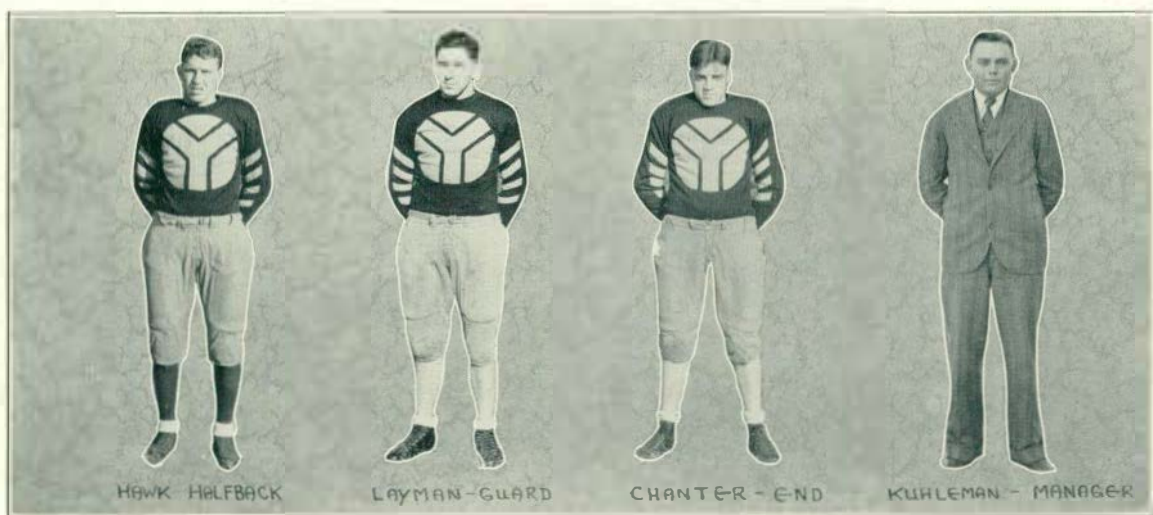

YPSILANTI 13, NOTRE DAME "B" 7; OCTOBER 19

In the greatest game every played on Alumni Field, the Hurons beat the Fighting Irish 13 to 7. In spite of the fact that Morrow and Stites were withdrawn from the game during the first quarter because of injuries, the team came through with a victory over what was undoubtedly the strongest eleven to ever visit the field at this college.

AURORA

1930

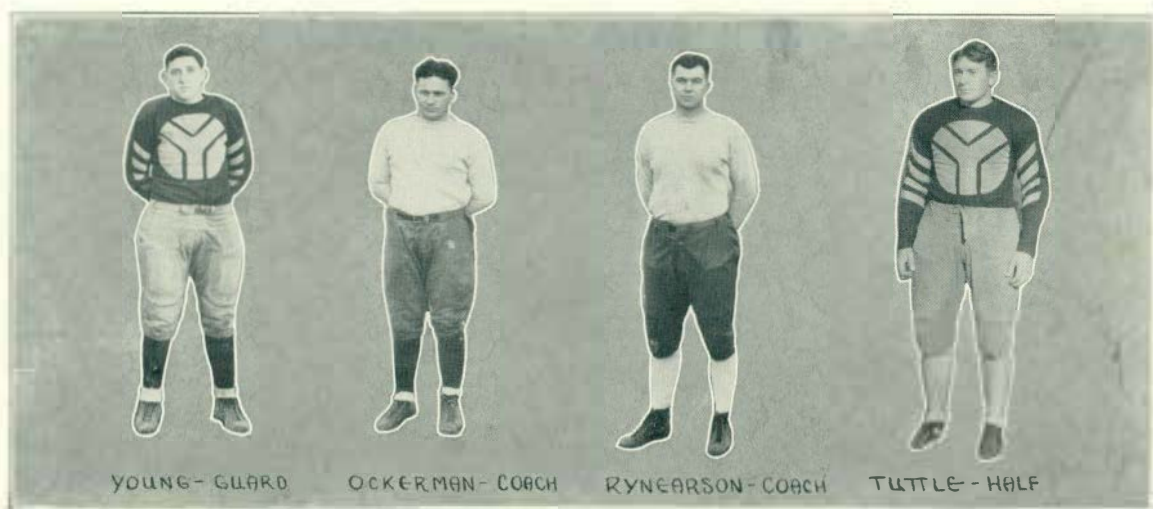

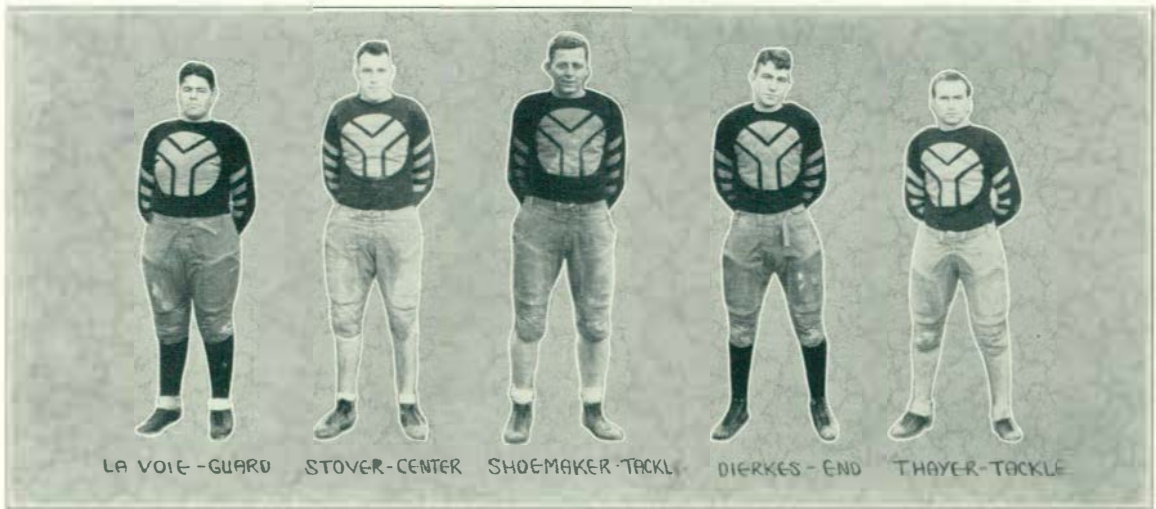

YPSILANTI 6, JOHN CARROL 6; NOVEMBER 16

Fully determined not to let defeat stay in the Ypsi camp, the team met the powerful John Carrol eleven at Alumni Field on November 16 and held them to a tie score. The stellar work of Vanyo and LaVoie in the line and the ball-toting abilities of Morrow, Stites, and Captain Gunnerson made Carrol play its best game to stay in the even column at the end of the game.

YPSILANTI 31, DETROIT CITY COLLEGE 0; NOVEMBER 31

In this last game of the season, with seven great football players on the field for their last game for Ypsi, the team won its final conference game by the lopsided score of 31 to 0. Morrow, Stites, Gunnerson, and Hawk ran rough-shod over the City College team and, but for the fact that the ground was covered with ice, almost scored at will.

YPSILANTI 24, CENTRAL STATE 0; OCTOBER 26

Using a starting line-up of subs, Rynie loosed an avalanche on the Mt. Pleasant boys in the form of a 24 to 0 game. This game, the first of the conference games, seemed to indicate a start off toward another championship.

YPSILANTI 6, WESTERN STATE 6; NOVEMBER 2

At Western State's Homecoming Day, Ypsi, with 500 loyal supporters, travelled to Kalamazoo to play Western the deciding conference game. That day two good teams met, and in a loosely played game full of penalties and injuries, the best the boys could get was a 6 to 6 game.

YPSILANTI 14, MICHIGAN "B" 18; NOVEMBER 9

In the only game that Ypsi lost during the past season, the Wolverines "B" team took its revenge for a 25 to 3 beating last year. The local boys lost advantages to score because of fumbles and penalties that gave the invaders their scoring chances. After all, in spite of the losing of this game, Ypsi's showing was good enough to give her a chance to try her metal against the Michigan Varsity at Yost stadium next fall.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE 1929

November	23	Detroit City College	There	1	0
				156	45

In the last three years Ypsi has hung up a football record that any college could well be proud of. With but two games lost out of twenty-four played, Rynie's wards have taken two conference championships and tied for one. This year the game tied with Western State Teachers' College fixed the race so that both Ypsi and Western State have equal claims on the championship. Ypsi, however, has first claim on it by virtue of her holding first honors for the past two seasons.

Of the men who made up this wonderful football machine, Morrow, LaVoie, Quinn, LeAnderson, Stites, Dierkes, and Captain Gunnerson are lost to the varsity next year. In their places, two line and five backfield positions, will go to men from the freshmen and reserve squads who have shown themselves to be fit cogs in the varsity lineup.

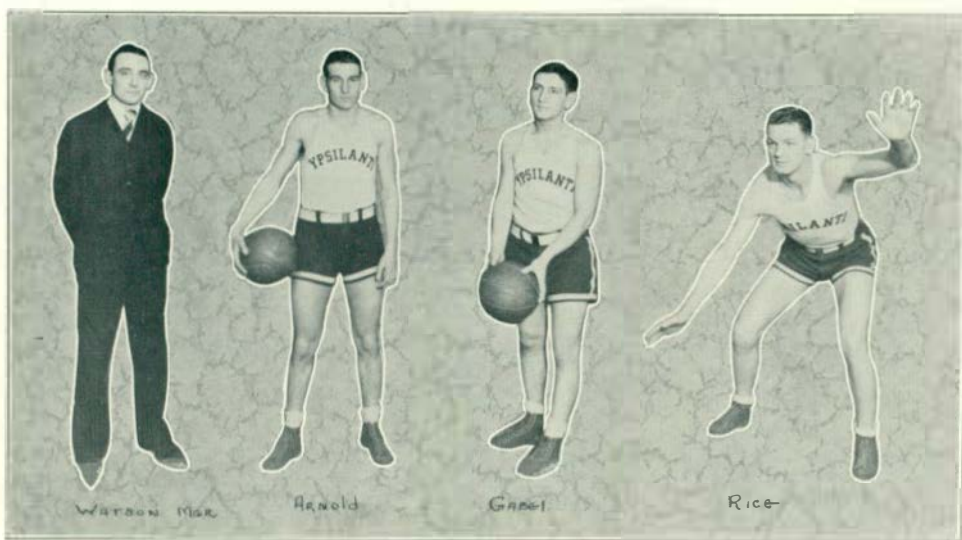

With most of the line, Shoemaker, Muellich, Young, Stover, Rice, Layman, Chanter, Thayer, Wills, Bernhagen, and the powerful Vanyo, along with Tuttle, Hawk, King, and Walters from last year's squad and a promising group of new men from the yearling ranks, Rynearson should turn out a winning team and a title holder for the season of 1930.

The Huron squad got off to a poor start, winning but one of its first seven games, but found its stride and took six of the last seven games in impressive style. These seven wins, however, gave enough to break even in the scoring column and the three wins in four games of the conference schedule gave the boys second place.

The first game, one with the Alumni, went to the "has-beens" by a 32 to 22 score. The boys lacked punch and organization and before the line-up could be revamped enough to build up a smooth working combination, the Michigan "B" team took a game from them at the home gym. In spite of the loss, three of the boys, Leach, Korzuck, and Arnold showed up well on the floor.

On January 17, City College, in the first conference game outplayed the locals in a 29 to 21 game and shortly after that the Michigan "B" team took a second victory out of the Huron camp.

A determined team invaded Central State's home court and saved its chances in the conference by whipping the Central cagers 22 to 18. Chanter, Giles, and Captain Whitney were the stars of this game, Chanter getting five hoops. The next night the same Ypsi team lost to Orchard Lake by a 32 to 34 score.

Taking to the road again on the following Monday, the Hurons went to Adrian where they dropped a 31 to 25 game. Ypsi's offense still seemed to lack smooth working order. Western State was carded for February 6, but college officials postponed the game indefinitely and the game was never played. The Central team came out of the north seeking revenge, but went back home on the short end of a 28 to 26 score after a hard-fought game. After this win, the team took spirit and whipped Adrian in an extra period game by a 26 to 22 tally.

Oberlin put a temporary halt to the winning streak by a 27 to 22 victory over the Ypsi cagers. Undaunted by defeat, the boys next met and took Armour Tech into camp 35 to 20. In this game Giles started his scoring streak with seven foul shots out of seven tries and a basket to boot. A few days later Detroit took a 24 to 22 beating at the hands of the locals best working combination: Giles and Gabel at forward, Rice at center, and Captain Whitney and Muelich at guard positions.

In the last home game, a slightly different combination defeated Northern State Normal, the Upper Peninsula champions, 44 to 39 at the Normal gym. Giles and Captain Whitney had their last home appearance in that game. The next night the team traveled to Chicago where it again met and defeated Armour Tech.

The last season, though not the best the Normals have ever had, was a successful one despite the fact that the games postponed in the conference were never played off to make possible any definite conclusion as to the team standing in the race. Giles again, after a poor start, took the high scoring honors of the Huron camp.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

This year's team has no doubt been one of the best to ever represent our school in the cross country world. Going through a full season without a single defeat and leaving behind a long string of broken records, this team can rest assured that it has the best record of any varsity team that the college has placed in competition this past year. Carrying on its schedule some of the hardest teams in the collegiate sport world, the local boys always managed to turn in a lopsided score with the opponents on the long end.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

This Green and White team won the National Junior A. A. U. Championship by defeating Detroit "Y", Indiana University, Ohio State, Cincinnati "Y", Pittsburg, and Penn State. The locals scored 33 points to give them a large winning margin over their nearest opponents, the Detroit team, which had 48 points.

Roger Arnett, Huron star, ran a beautiful race, covering the six mile course in 31 minutes and 33 seconds to take first place in the team scoring. Morcombe, O'Connor, and Bauer finished third, fourth, and fifth in the order named while Captain Wolfe finished in twentieth place, the last man to score for Ypsi. Altaffer, who ran his last race for Ypsi there, was running in fifteenth place but was forced to drop out about a quarter of a mile from the finish tape when he was seized with a bad attack of cramps.

The team received a large silver plaque and each of the men were given medals emblematic of membership on the winning team. The first four Hurons to score also received awards for individual places.

Coach Olds, with the wealth of material he has on his 1930 varsity track team, should have little trouble in winning the conference championship which, with the exception of last year, the Hurons have been in the habit of taking ever since the conference was formed.

This team with a great distance and middle-distance crew from the ranks of the championship cross country team, exceptionally good dash and hurdle men, and above average field event men, is one of the best teams to ever represent this college in the track world.

Coach Ockerman's nine, with a number of last years' regulars back on the team roster, is led this season by Captain Giles, senior short-stop. With valuable additions to the pitching staff from last season's freshman squad, the mound division should be better than last year's, and with a strong line-up of heavy hitters there appear to be few chances of losing any of the games. The team should have a good chance of taking first honors in the conference this year.

THE VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM

The swimming team, thought it did not break into the winning column, was as strong an aggregation of tank-men as ever represented this college. In meets with Grand Rapids "Y", Toldeo "Y", and Michigan State College, it's members showed up well and it was defeated only by small margins.

True to form, Captain Wesley Nott was a consistent point winner in both the diving and free-style events. With but the loss of Captain Nott and Dierkes, the team should be equally strong next year.

Left to Right—CAPT. DELONG, BORST, COACH SAMSON, KEMPF, MORAN.

V A R S I T Y T E N N I S

Coach Samson's netters, the same team as last year with the exception of Arnold who replaces Borst, face this coming season with very fair prospects. With DeLong, who ranks as fifth college player in the state, as first man and three other men of nearly his calibre to make up the rest of the squad, the Ypsi team should have a successful court season.

THE VARSITY GYMNASTIC TEAM

This team, though it is the only non-competitive team to represent this college, visits more cities throughout this and the neighboring states than any other organized group of athletes from this campus. During the past eight years the gymnastic teams of this school have travelled and performed in the states of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Maryland. This year's team took a long trip at Easter Vacation, giving exhibitions throughout Michigan and Northern Michigan.

Short trip exhibitions were given during the season at Tecumseh, Toledo, South Lake, Detroit (2), Monroe, Pontiac, Dearborn, Hillsdale, Rochester, Albion, Ann Arbor, Adrian, Birmingham, Highland Park (2), Plymouth, and Jackson.

City College Frosh	o	Ypsi.....	26

The freshman squad of 1929 was one of the largest that has reported since the three year varsity ruling took affect at Ypsi. There is no doubt but what some of the men of this team will take the places left open on the varsity by the graduation of Captain Gunnerson, Stites, Dierkes, and Morrow in the backfield, and there is little doubt that Throop and Sanders of this freshman team will see action on next year's team.

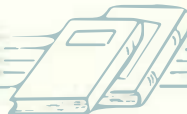

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

City College Frosh	14	Ypsi.	17
Mt. Pleasant Frosh	42	Ypsi.	25
Adrian Frosh	30	Ypsi.	26

City College Frosh	19	Ypsi.	25
Varsity Reserves	28	Ypsi.	36

Winning six of their eight games, Coach Ockerman's freshman five proved its quality as a basketball aggregation this past season. Several men of marked ability were found in the frosh ranks this year and at least three or four of them will be found in the varsity line-up next year.

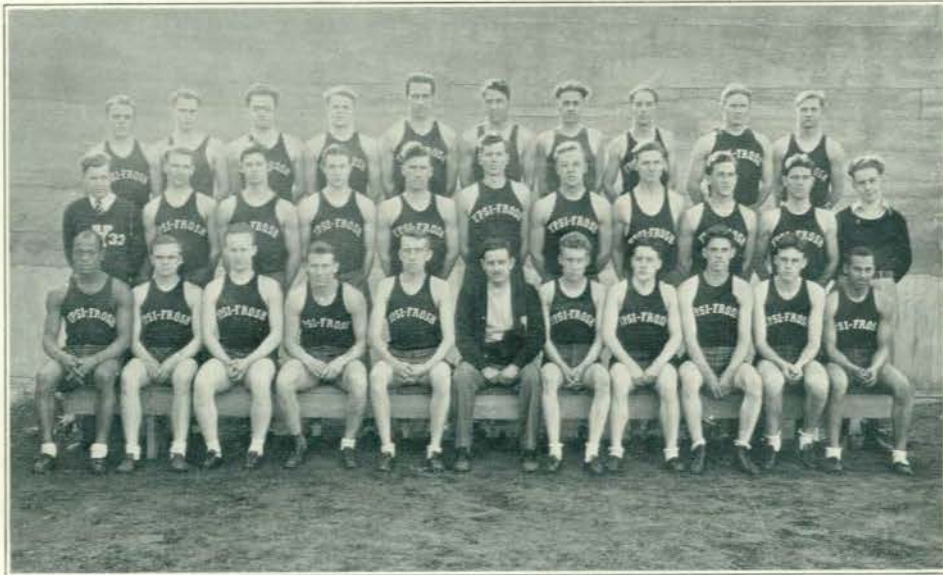

THE FRESHMAN CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

The Frosh team, not unlike the varsity harriers, spent its whole season administering defeats to its opponents in the six dual meets on its schedule. With this group of runners to draw from, next year's varsity team should have little trouble holding the cross country laurels that have been gained in the past years.

SCHEDULE FOR 1929

Oct. 18	Ann Arbor High	37	Ypsi.	19
Oct. 22	Detroit Eastern	29	Ypsi.	27
Oct. 25	Dearborn High	29	Ypsi.	27

Nov. 15	Detroit C. C. Frosh	46	Ypsi.	15

FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM

Coach Marshall found much good material in the incoming freshman class this year. Even as the Aurora goes to press, these boys will be hard at work developing themselves for places on future varsity teams. Outstanding men this year are Quinn, distance man and captain of the squad, Beatty, former outstanding scholastic champion hurdler, and they are followed closely in ability by the rest of one of the largest frosh track squads that Ypsi has ever had.

SCHEDULE FOR 1930

May 2	Notre Dame Frosh	Here
May 9	Detroit City College Frosh	Here
May 17	State Meet	Lansing
May 23	Central State Frosh	Here
June 2	Detroit "Y"	Here

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

This year's frosh team under the mentorship of Coach Stites is developing a wealth of good material for the varsity. This team tries its strength on the freshman squads of the various colleges throughout the state. Coach Stites plans on having his boys play at least four games during the term.

FRESHMAN TENNIS TEAM

Though there was no available picture of the frosh court squad, there is such a team on the campus. Their coach, Ken DeLong, first man on the varsity squad, has arranged a schedule for the green men.

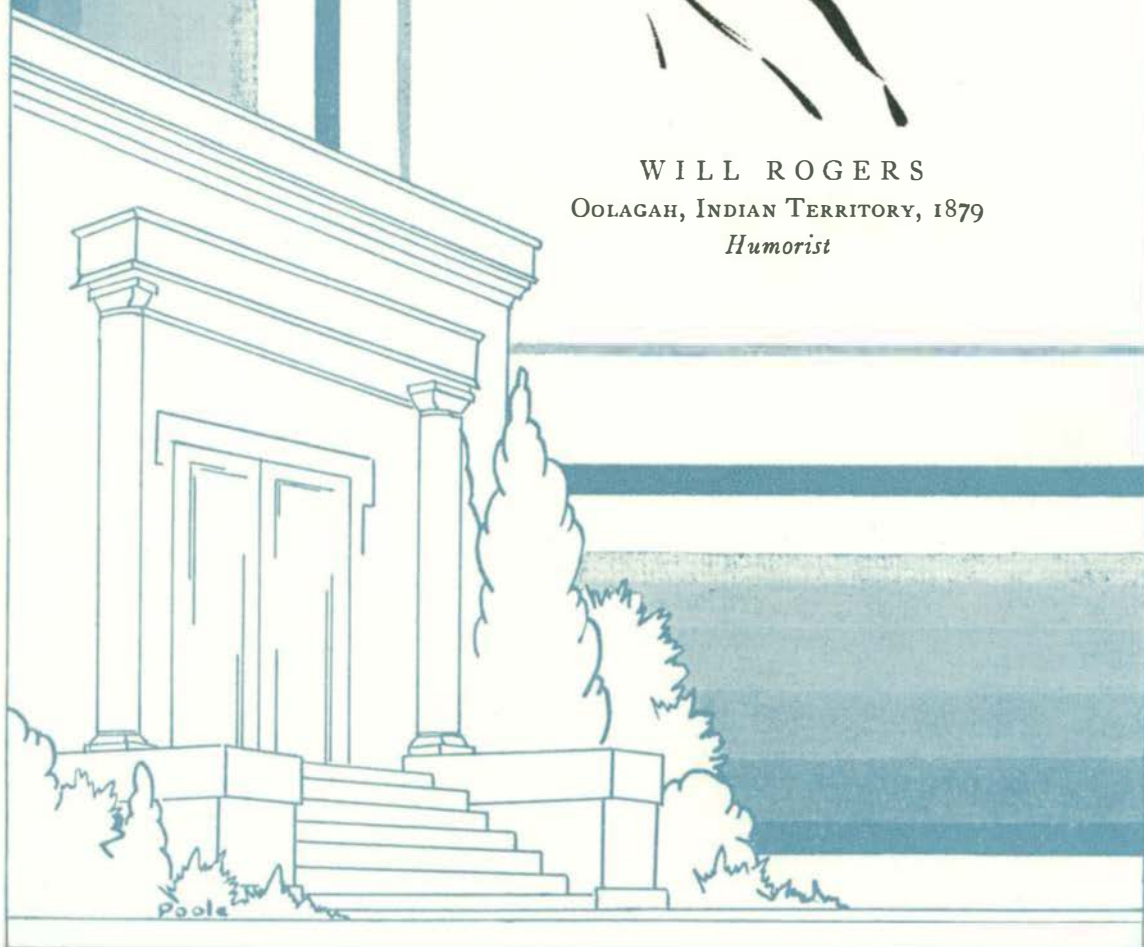

Those who compose the squad are E. Richardson, H. Cieslewsky, A. Baker, M. Hoisington, J. Carson, and Wm. McKinley.

HUMOR

WILL ROGERS
OOLAGAH, INDIAN TERRITORY, 1879
Humorist

J O K E S

Dean—"Something should be done to stop all this petting."
Dorothy—"Well, in heathen countries they drown the girl babies."

THOUGHTS BY A FLAPPER

"You know me, darling, only as I'm painted,
You'd be surprised, should we become acquainted,
I may seem blase, bored and all the rest,
But I can be old-fashioned by request."

Dick—"Did you ever hear of any success in history achieved without arms?"
Jim—"How about Venus de Milo?"

Prof. Pray—"Look here, waitress, there isn't a particle of turtle in this turtle soup."
Waitress—"Well, what of it? We have Cabinet pudding but you wouldn't expect to find Andrew Mellon in it, would you?"

"Please say you'll be mine forever," he murmured in her ear softly. "I may not be on the football team like Andy Vanyo and I won't have as much money to spend on you as Vanyo would but oh darling, I love you more than any girl I've ever met."
"And I love you too, dear," she whispered, "but where is this Vanyo fellow?"

President (at class meeting)—"The chair does not recognize you, Miss Anderson. Sit down."
Miss Anderson—"Oh, you stuck-up thing! I was introduced to you last week."

Four years of pulling the wool, and there's your sheepskin.

"Oh, Mamma, Mamma! A motor truck just smashed the baby buggy all to pieces!"
"Heavens! Was the baby killed?"
"No, Mamma, luckily he fell in the river a little while before."

First Darky—"What fo' you name yo' baby 'Electricity', Mose?"
Second Darky—"Well, mah name am Mose and mah wife's name am Dinah, and if Dinahmose don't make electricity, what does dey make?"

Bob Cutler—"Do you smoke?"
Ypsi Co-ed—"No."
Bob Cutler—"Do you drink?"
Ypsi Co-ed—"No."
Bob Cutler—"Do you pet?"
Ypsi Co-ed—"No."
Bob Cutler—"Oh, goody let's go out and have a hell of a good time looking in pool room windows."

Roger—"Why don't you marry Jo? Afraid to pop the question?"
Norman—"No, afraid to question the pop."

Teacher—"Johnny, I am surprised. Do you know any more jokes like that?"
Johnny—"Yes, teacher."
Teacher—"Well, stay after school."

"Are you quitting school?"
"No."
"Then why are you sending your clothes home?"
"I am moving into the fraternity house next semester."

Taxi Driver—"My, what a clutch!"
Jimmy House—"Say, you keep your eyes to the front. This is none of your business!"

Ann—"I wish I were like a river."
Bea—"How's that?"
Ann—"It follows its course without leaving its bed."

Mary Ceil—"What is a New England Conscience?"
Chuck—"One that works only for others, my dear."

Professor—"Wise men hesitate; fools are certain."
Jerry—"Are you sure?"
Professor—"I am certain."

Mother—"Now, dear, when you say your prayers, pray for warm weather so that Grandma's rheumatism will get better.
Little Heliotrope (age 16, kneeling at her bedside)—"Please, God, make it hot for Grandma."

Bettine—"Did Mary marry her partner in that flying trapeze act?"
Joy—"No, she decided to drop him."

Did you know that high heels were invented by a very short good-looking blonde who was continually being kissed on the forehead?

James (age four)—"Did you hear the one about the travelling salesman?"
Mary (age three and a half)—"Moth—er!!"

"I shouldn't have eaten that missionary steak,"
Said the cannibal king with a frown.
"For oft have I heard of the old proverb—
You can't keep a good man down."

Trusty—"I'll do anything I can, Warden."
Warden—"Well, don't put yourself out."

He—"Am I the first man you have ever kissed?"
She—"Of course! Why do all men ask the same question?"

Dean—"Why are you in college?"
Bewildered Freshman—"Mother says it's so I'll meet the right people; father says it's so I can be educated; sister says it's to get me out of the way for four years; my frat brothers say there's no reason—but I think it's because somebody has to wear out my older brother's coonskin coat."

"I'll take you up on that," said he pointing to the Ferris Wheel.

Psychologist—"Man, you're color-blind."
Man—"My heavens, I got married a week ago."

Roger—"Do you think that airplanes will ever supplant automobiles?"
Alice—"No. Who would want to park in a damp old cloud?"

Prof. Sanders—"Why did you spell pneumatic—'newmatic'?"
Prof. Reninger—"The 'k' on my typewriter is not working."

Ruth—"Yes, sir; I paint a picture in a day and a half and think nothing of it."
Art Teacher (dryly)—"Neither do I."

SEPTEMBER

The Big Sisters take their Little Sisters to a Backwards Party.

Hooray! The old Classification Jam. Andy Vanyo looks over the Freshmen women.

Big Ben gets on the job for eight o'clocks.

The Freshmen rush home to tell Mama and Papa all about it.

OCTOBER

Miller's proofs come back—the patients are recovering.

The Ann Arbor shieks as usual try to crash the College Party.

Oh! Oh! Bernie, we knew you couldn't watch that girl and keep your feet.

The Freshmen take their annual dip in the fountain.

Homecoming—the alumni come back to give us the once over.

NOVEMBER

Big trip to the Celery City—celery, yells, football and whoopee!

The College Play, "She Stoops to Conquer"—and how!

The bustle is back in style. We see them wrestling around at the parties.

DECEMBER

Shoemaker is elected next year's football captain. "We offer you congratulations."

Big Oratorical Contest.

The Kollege Kermis—clowns, grab bags, clocks and stuffed birds.

Vacation at last—plenty of snow for Santa.

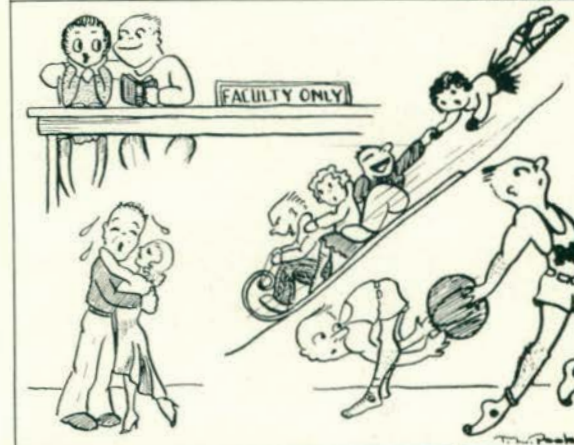

JANUARY

THE NEW LIBRARY OPENS WITH ceremony That Faculty Only table bothers us.

Big novelty—learn to dance on your own feet—dancing lessons at the gym.

Hot times on the toboggan slide. Reserve your seat early.

FEBRUARY

The month starts out with keen skating. Many get the slip.

Parties are in full swing and the air full of bids.

The Faculty outdoes itself and gives us a dose of laughs.

One of our absent-minded profs goes out in the rain—opens his book and puts his umbrella under his arm.

The month ends with signs of spring in the air.

MARCH

"A Prince There Was"—perhaps some of the men got a suggestion for that new spring suit from Alan Trench's snappy outfit, and the girls hints for an aggressive technique of handling men from Ernestine Anderson.

Robin Hood, Hayseed Couple, Mechanical Toys and Dutch Twins mingle merrily at the Co-ed Prom.

College Circus—and some of us are still trying to puzzle out that breath-taking leap from the Gym ceiling into the barrel, which might make even Houdini or Thurston green with envy.

We go home to prepare Mother and Dad for the term marks.

APRIL

We return for another period of rest in preparation for our summer vacation.

The Arm of Honor house entertains the campus with St. James Infirmary a la the front porch.

Frederic Fuller again brings honor to M. S. N. C. by tying for first place in the Regional Oratorical Contest at Pease.

Spring showers and sunshine—the boys and girls revive their interest in nature study.

Frederic Fuller wins National Oratorical Contest at Northwestern University.

Relay team takes second place at Drake Relays, Des Moines, Iowa.

MAY AND JUNE

Annual Kollege Komedy—college boys and girls have a chance to show their originality or lack of it.

Decrepit Seniors support themselves with canes. The end is surely approaching.

Senior girls' breakfast.

College closes—we shake the mothballs out of our bathing suits and hasten to the seashore.

Alumni grace our halls with their mature presence.

Commencement—seniors' last bow.
