AURORA

Published by the students of the Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Michigan

DEDICATION

O MR. JOHN W. STEVENS, for forty years, nearly, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, Michigan State Normal College, the Aurora of 1937 is dedicated.

The almanac contends that Uncle John is along in years—in fact the oldest man on the campus. He saw Butler and Wilber and Steimle graduate along with hundreds of other old-timers, e.g., myself. He recalls sadly the day the Second Battle of Bull Run was fought—that his father would never come back. It was his fifth birthday.

But Uncle John has repealed the almanac. Night and day, rain or shine, Uncle John sees that things get done.

Of the many things I am thankful for none give me more delight and satisfaction than the times I have had working with Uncle John.

I join with Students and Faculty in conveying our appreciations and continued good wishes.

JOHN M. MUNSON

President

From 1901 to 1903, Mr. Munson was a student of the Michigan State Normal College; 1933 found him president of this same institution. In the intervening years, Mr. Munson received degrees, Ed.M. and Ph.B., from the University of Chicago; acted as Superintendent of Schools, Harbor Springs, Michigan; served in the State Department of Public Instruction; directed the training schools at Central State Teacher's College, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan; and was president of the Northern State Teachers' College, Marquette, Michigan.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

HOVER

J. MILTON HOVER

Dean of Administration

Granted an A.B. degree from the Michigan State Normal College, Mr. Hover returned to serve his Alma Mater, aided by a B.S. from the University of Chicago and an M.S. from the University of Michigan, work at Cornell University, and previous teaching experience in Indiana and West Virginia.

Seventeen years of service in the State Normal College include a Professorship in Agriculture, a Professorship in Vatural Science, Headship of the Natural Science Department, and now he is serving the College as Dean of Administration.

LYDIA I. JONES

Dean of Women

In obtaining an education Miss Jones has been partial to the East. She has a Ph.B. from Cornell and an A.B. from Columbia, and she has done added work at Harvard and Oxford Universities. Her teaching experience was gained at the State Normal School, Geneseo, New York, at the State Teachers' College, San Jose, California, and at the Universities of California and Michigan. Thirteen years ago she came to the Michigan State Normal College to assume the duties of the Dean of Women, and has acted in that capacity to date.

ONES

Brown

JAMES M. BROWN

Dean of Men

The "men's man" earned his B.S. degree at Colgate and has done graduate work at Harvard and at the University of Michigan. Mr. Brown has served as a teacher, as a supervisor of physical education, and as a director of athletics in New Hampshire, in New York, and at the University of Detroit, respectively, before coming to the Michigan State Tormal College in 1923. The first four years here he served in the Department of Physical Education; the last nine years he has acted as the Dean of Men.

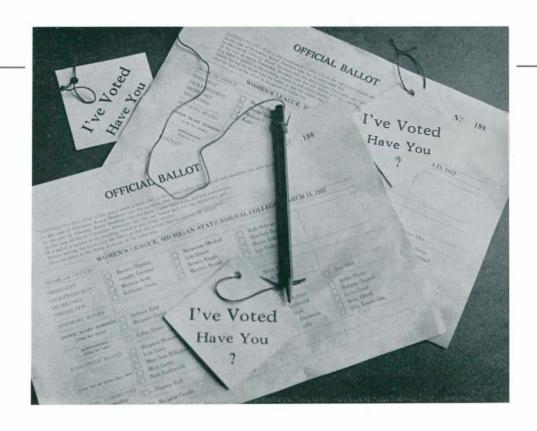

CLEMENS P. STEIMLE

Registrar

C.P.S. These are the initials that haunt every new and every former student of the Michigan State Normal College. They "ok" his entrance credits, state that his tuition is paid, that he mayor may not enter classes, and after four years, they declare that the student is honorably discharged from the institution. Just so, for Mr. Steimle is an alumnus of the Michigan State Normal College. Four years he was an assistant in the Department of Mathematics. Since 1909 he has served in his present capacity as Registrar of the Michigan State Normal College.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

AIM

To develop techniques of friendliness, co-operation, leadership and democracy; to sponsor a program that provides education in cultural leisure; to advise and offer guidance to girls in order to maintain proper standards of college life.

FRIENDLINESS, CO-OPERATION, LEADERSHIP

Campus Sisters: Freshmen women are orientated to their college life through the work of the Campus Sisters during Freshman Week. Lectures, parties, campus tours, teas, formation of clubs, dutch treats, mixers—these are the activities which help the freshmen to get into the "swim".

Organizations and Conventions: The League is a member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. Every other year a national convention is held, and the League sends a delegate. This year the convention was at Los Angeles, California. Every alternate year a regional convention is held, to which the League also sends delegates. The Neighborhood Conference was held this year at Mt. Pleasant. As a result of the round-table discussions, many new ideas were brought to our campus.

House Presidents' Council: The House Presidents' Council worked this year to help the girls to realize their own responsibilities in improving rooming-house conditions. Realizing that a girl's room expresses her interests and ideals, the Council prepared a code embodying the care of the room and closets, house courtesies—hints that were readily accepted by the women to work toward a happier and more efficient life in their rooms.

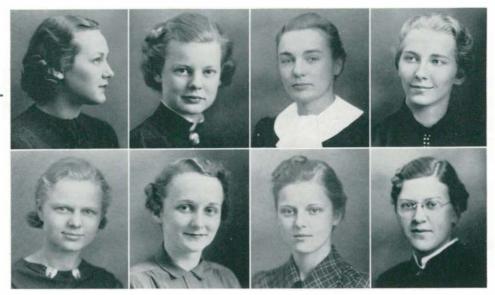

Service and Awards: Cards, flowers, or personal notes were sent throughout the year by the League to its "shut-in" members. Spring term the League made scholarship awards to the two young women having the highest scholastic ratings for the year.

CULTURAL LEISURE

Teas: The Transfer women were honored at a tea early in the Fall term. An Honors' Tea, given in the spring in the Science Gardens, honored the students who had attained high scholastic honors during the year.

Senior Cozies at Starkweather offered the Senior women time to gather informally to chat about the future over their tea cups.

-1937 SEASON

Clubs: Viventes offered to the Freshmen women teas and dinners illustrating etiquette; and programs were given for fun—just for fun. No dues.

Goldjeather offered to the Sophomore women lectures on the development of personality, opportunity to display their dramatic talent in skits by enacting the "do's" and "don'ts" of social procedure. Free tickets to the Choral Union and the May Festival programs in Ann Arbor were given to members who met certain requirements. No dues.

Euthalia offered to the Junior women the opportunity to attend the best current plays during the year in Ann Arbor and Detroit. Preparation for these plays was made at regular meetings. There were lectures, too, on the theater by professors from the Michigan State Normal College and the University of Michigan. No dues.

Book-a-Month, the club for Senior women, offered student discussion as well as faculty reviews of such current books as "Gone With The Wind." Dues of seventy-five cents entitled each member to a book at the end of the year. Informal dinners at a nominal cost to each member and tickets to lectures by contemporary authors were made possible by the treasury of the League.

Parties: The first formal party, the Harvest Hop, was held in the Fall. Hours before the tickets went on sale, the girls lined the corridor of Pierce Hall.

The Spring formal was the League Lark. The beautiful spring setting blended with the gay gowns of the girls and the gayer music of the orchestra.

The Spook Swirl, a Co-ed Prom, was given with the appropriate Hallowe'en setting. Ghosts, skeletons, witches, and fortune-tellers lent themselves to the spirit of the occasion.

Assemblies: The League presented student talent through a Major Bowes' (Professor Renninger) Amateur Hour.

Doctor McClusky from the University of Michigan gave a discerning and prophetic talk on youth and the various futures he may have.

Miss Elizabeth Osborne, well-known personality consultant and expert in checking on youths' assets and liabilities, approached the subject "The Future You" from a different and interesting angle.

The famous Mrs. Gailbraith was selected for the lecture of Spring Term.

ADVICE AND OFFER OF GUIDANCE

Advisory Board: This year the nine members of the Board have ceased to function entirely as a penalizing body and have taken on duties as an advisory group. Frequently the meetings were held in the Women's Lounge where the girls felt free to bring such questions and problems as the members of the Board could answer. The meetings were open to all who cared to attend. Discussions were held around an open fire, and light refreshments were served.

The experiment of a group of students helping other students with such problems as college customs, sororities, dances, and other extra-curricular activities has been very successful. Both the members of the Board and the students have profited by this constructive program.

Student Advisers: In order that the standards and the ideals of the Executive and Advisory Boards might be brought to the students, all the larger houses were visited by a student adviser. This student adviser brought a message directly from the Boards to the girls. She also collected student opinion on rules and various other matters of campus interest. This student opinion in turn was organized and presented to the Boards for their consideration. In this way students had a larger part in the control and conduct of women's affairs on the campus.

FALL TERM

MUGS: For the first time in the history of the organization of the Men's Union, a system for the orientation of the freshmen, comparable to the Campus Sisters of the Women's League, was employed. Under the direction of President Matthews, a general committee composed of Jim Ross, Jim Richards, Bob Champe, and Fred Ecclestone organized the Men's Union Guides. After the newly arrived freshman registered at McKenny Hall, he was assigned to a "MUG", who was responsible for getting him acquainted with his new home by taking him on campus tours, to lectures, and to mixers.

Cap Coronation: Since it has been customary to put all freshmen in their places, the class of 1940 received early in the term those easily distinguished green caps known as "pots". Appropriate ceremonies attended the crowning process.

Executive Board: The Executive Board was elected at a special meeting early in the term. The Seniors elected Don Bronson and Carl Newman to represent them; the Juniors elected Kenneth Lane and Louis Wenger; the Sophomores elected Harold DeWard and Ellsworth Anderson; and the Freshmen elected Patrick Heffernan.

Homecoming: Co-chairmen Jim Richards and Ray Helber, with the full co-operation of the various committees, planned and executed two gala days of excitement—class games, the pep rally, the theater rush, the Huron parade, the presentation of prizes for the best float and house decorations, and the Alumni dance. An innovation appeared in the election of the "Huron Princess and her Court" to preside over the activities of Huron Days.

MEN'S UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD -

Yule-Log Drag: Novel and appropriate Christmas decorations for the background of the smooth music of Miles Carter of St. Louis brought a record-breaking crowd and a highly successful party. The "something new and different for each activity" spirit was here too, for the Yule-log failed to put in its appearance. Co-chairmen Don Bronson and Ray Helber and their committees were responsible for this "red-letter" day on the calendar of the Union activities.

WINTER TERM

Coffee Hour: Desire for a new type of student-faculty contact led the Union to adopt the popular Wednesday afternoon coffee hour. This innovation was brought to the campus from eastern universities. It proved to be an excellent opportunity for informal student-faculty contact on the basis of discussion of such pertinent questions as "Education for Democracy", "The Supreme Court and the President", and "Theories of the Solar System".

Student Senate: The Executive Board plus Edwin Neill, senior representative, Duane Nelson, junior alternate, Henry Jensen, sophomore representative, and the representatives of the Women's League completed the constitution for a Student Senate and presented it to the president for his approval.

SPRING TERM

Spring Breeze: Beautiful flowers, soft lights, sweet music, gentle breezes, and a gay crowd combined to make a grand finale for the '36-'37 formal season.

Assemblies: Worthwhile entertainment throughout the year came in the form of speakers and movies: Bill Otto, Secretary of the Lansing Board of Commerce; Charles Bachman, head football coach at Michigan State College; Warden Ryan of the Milan Prison Farm; and pictures of the 1936 American League Baseball season.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The policy of the Social Committee of this year regarding the All-College parties was "Hire better orchestras and hold the crowd". Therefore, we found such bands as Russ Armstrong, Mike Falk, Art Winters, Henry Foster, Al Cowan, and occasionally our own Moe and Carter's "Collegians". The softer lighting schemes and the better grade of music made the All-College parties much more conducive to dancing, and the attendance reminded one of the "good old days".

One of the high spots of the Fall Term activities was the Hallowe'en Harmony Hop. Henry Foster of Detroit furnished the rhythm; the Social Committee furnished the noisemakers and hats; the record-breaking crowd furnished the fun.

Another Fall Term high-light was the Cabaret Party. Dan Muntean acted as Master of Ceremonies, introducing a score of novel entertainers. It was the first "dress" party of the year.

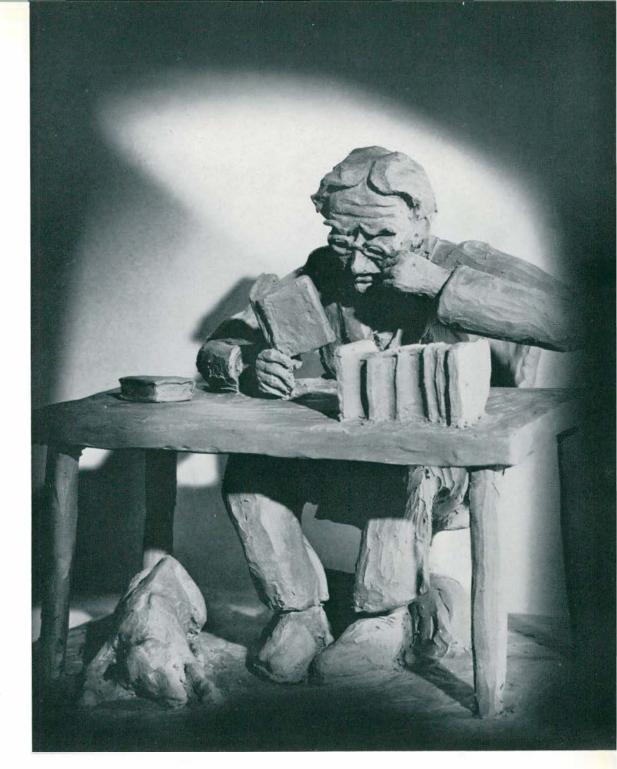

During the Winter Term, the Social Committee began work on a brand new project. This project was to take the form of a ten-cent, Friday-night dance. The committee called these new Kresge rivals, Woolworths. These Woolworths were held in the ballroom of Charles McKenny Hall on frequent Friday nights. The music consisted of recordings and radio orchestras. This new type of dance proved to be highly successful, and the crowds were happily satisfied that this campus could promote dances that were cheap, well-attended, and very informal.

In addition to these regular dances, a weekly dancing class was given every Thursday night. A large number of students attended these classes regularly to emerge as full-fledged ballroom dancers.

The college parties for the Spring Term were limited to the Cabaret Party and the ever popular Woolworths. The continued excellent attendance at these parties was sufficient proof that the social year had been entirely successful.

The members of the Social Committee this year were Mrs. Lyman, Faculty Advisor; Arthur Kalita, Chairman; Robert Goold, Secretary; Jane Kennedy, Vera Corbett, Eltie Kemmerling, and Robert Ford.

CLASS DAY

Again the Seniors did the unusual in Class Day. Tired of the traditional performance—Valedictory, Salutatory, and the rest—we attempted a "Last Appearance" which would be entertaining as well as informational.

It was an impressive sight to see the Class of '37 take its last bow in Pease Auditorium. Robed in academic attire, the Seniors filed for the last time as students down those aistes. Four years preparation for this day made the members of that file both retrospective and forward-looking, each a little sad at leaving yet eager to take his place in society.

The management of this final program was effectively taken care of by the Class Day committee: Wendell Lichtenfelt, Chairman; Helen Houvener, Louise Sweet, Virginia Horton, Ray Helber and Walter Good.

The traditional Lantern Walk with fond farewells to all the buildings on the campus took place on June 18th. In flowing robes and mortar-boards the seniors swung through the familiar walks and paths, stopping at each building long enough for a short summary of activities and a word of appreciation.

The procession started at Charles McKenny Hall and after making the circuit, returned there for a last fling as students.

Don Bronson, Chairman, with Sue Haviland, Gertrude Hartung, Mary Joan Purcell, Raymond Lee and Christy Wilson were responsible for the success of this last tour of the well-known and venerable halls of learning of Michigan State Normal College.

FROM A 1950 PERSPECTIVE

Dear J. J.:

Do you ever think back on those four years we spent at M. S. N. C. together? Things have changed here in the old U. S. A., but I heard just yesterday that Ypsi still has the "oldest teacher training institution West of the Alleghanies", and the familiar ring of those words brought back a flood of memories—some pleasant, some not so pleasant. But the preponderance of happy thoughts made it seem worth while to write them to you.

Remember what we got out of college? Now it seems far away, and our sense of values has changed. But the things that stand out as important are not the subject matter, the education courses, the practice teaching which we all endured and which we took so seriously at the time, but rather the people we met who had something to offer toward the enlargement of our outlook on life. We polished apples—every generation uses that infallible technique; we crammed or we didn't care. Seems strange now.

But to return to the specific memories of four of our best years, when we were still deluded into thinking that we were the "cream of the crop" and that the world needed our invaluable services. There were Freshman Days. Teas with a blur of faces and no remembrance of the names to fit. First impressions of buildings—McKenny Hall— Pierce Hall—the library from which we could absorb the essence of power—Knowledge. The teachers—and our picking out the pipe ccurses. We learned these fundamentals from upper-classmen who were not always right and most frequently were wrong. Some of us were too submerged in books to know that we had a social side but the Women's League helped the women to find themselves, and the Men's Union aided the men in the adjustment from high school to college. Winter brought rushing by sororities and fraternities and the mental struggle "to take, or not to take". Well, we survived that first year, didn't we? Those last exams of Spring Term were like a great release, and we were sophomores.

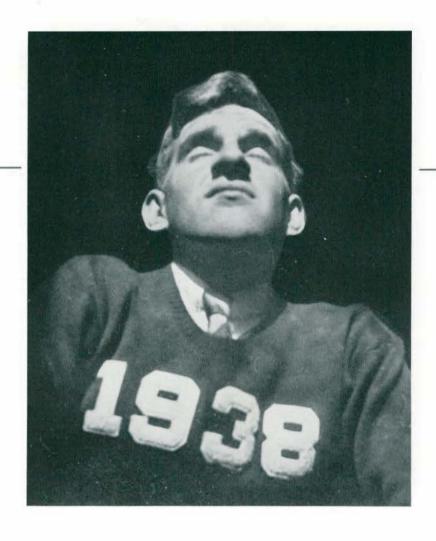

Back at it again in the Fall, we made up our minds that the social side of our nature should expand, so we haggled for "bids" to dances and brought the "first romance" to the college, tripping the light fantastic to the tune of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes". But he or she didn't fit into the scheme, perhaps; a friend-ship faded and you were free, white, and 19, weren't you? Elections captured our fancy this year for our political sense had been sharpened by long discussions overheard in the "George", the "Drug" and the Union. We cast our ballots, and elected Eileen Bitzer and Walt Whitehouse. Life again was taking on a steady hum of humdrum when suddenly the Science Garden announced that it was Spring. But June came too soon and the glorious year was over. We had reached the climax, and the rest was only falling action.

As Juniors we came back with the definite goal of saving the world for democracy and from the slough of ignorance in which it wallowed. Well, the world is different—but better? That '37 J-Hop absorbed hours of hard work, mostly fun though. Then came Kappa Delta Pi bids—but we had become philosophical by this time and weren't too disappointed. Flash! Barbara Whan wins League Presidency, and Jim Matthews the Mens' Union's. We finished our Junior year with a round of parties, said "good-bye" to Seniors that we knew we'd miss, and looked forward to that three months vacation.

Seniors! It has been said that the freshman year is the worst, but it can't compare to the bustle, worry, and heartache of that last hectic year. You could describe it in three words—Work, Work, Work! It passed quickly, though, and almost before we knew it, we were facing Class Day, Lantern Walk, Baccalaureate, Commencement. The last mile! We were finished! Free from the limits of conventional education, but really just beginning to learn, to know what life means.

And now, dear J. J., years later we can say it was worth while. We made friends, we read books which lifted our minds from the commonplace, the meanness of ordinary human existence. If college has helped us to live more fully, and I think it has, then it has fulfilled its most vital objective. Many happy hours return again and again, not those in study or in classes, but rather ones with you when we talked of philosophy as well as incidentals. Well, it's long past now. I'm satisfied, aren't you?

JUNIOR GARGON

Juniors we are and cocks of the walk, in our opinion, at least. We took special care in selecting our president this year, must have a handsome one for the J-Hop grand march, you know. With our gang active in Women's League work and Men's Union Activities, our classman Leonard Lewis editing the school paper, and the football team as well as others supplied with Junior talent, we can just relax and consider that we are doing pretty fine as campus leaders.

Shades of something or other, and maybe we Juniors aren't patting ourselves on the back. In the race for a Homecoming queen, out of the five girls chosen, three were Juniors including the queen, Barbara Howlett. And if that isn't a monopoly I'd like to see one. For a class with brains, brawn, and beauty, give us the Juniors every time.

Still more monopolies. Both the college orators, Ruth Holleran and Fritz Liechty, are Juniors. The men's debate squad are well-supplied with third-years, also.

We had a rousing class meeting a while back and the women, upsetting all precedent, asserted themselves by insisting on co-chairmen for the J-Hop. A girl and a boy were to share equally in the responsibility for the party. Elections came off, and Gertrude Deal was elected to represent the women. But the men just couldn't make up their minds; a tie resulted. Another election was held and Bob Ford secured the coveted post. All signs pointed to a super-super J-Hop. Then it was over. It surpassed everybody's fondest hopes.

Not only did we go social successfully but also athletic. The Physical Ed. department is saying prayers nightly in thanksgiving for our stalwart Juniors. Basketball, Track, and such, you understand. Don't know what they would do without us.

Spring is in the air. Elections, too. Juniors are assuming a worried responsible look as they contemplate next year when they enter the realms of the graduating class. With our third successful year finished, however, we can safely contemplate making home on the last stretch. To the Juniors, then, for their last year—Success!

Decorations

JANE KENNEDY, Chairman BARBARA HOWLETT FRANCIS EXWORTHY JOHN DOWZYCKI WILLIAM SHEPPARD Sweet swing rhythms provided by Dick Jurgens and his nationally known orchestra, a flood of golden light, tall white pillars and a midnight blue background, all joined to make the 1937 J-Hop the most memorable occasion of the year. A color scheme of gold and white was carried throughout—programs, decorations, refreshments. The music was consistently excellent, the dancers consistently enthusiastic, and the party consistently superlative.

The decorations were classic in tone, the main feature being the tall white columns topped with golden urns. The discus thrower and his companion sportsmen stood guard over the orchestra and over the entrance. Favors of the evening were gold link bracelets with suspended tiny letters spelling J-Hop.

The class of '38 sponsored an innovation in having a woman co-chairman for the Hop.

SOPHOGRAMS

When we, the class of '39, assembled on the campus of M. S. N. C. for the beginning of dur sophomore year, we numbered 386. Bill Bryson was our president; Hilda Levin was second-mate; Jean Jolliffe was the chief stenographer; and we had chosen Chet Caton as the man to handle the finances.

The first week was spent in our assuming a fatherly (and motherly) attitude over the new students on the campus, and it was great sport to heckle some timid freshman boy about his "pot". Not forgetting the traditional custom of letting freshman men get used to Ypsi water by soaking them in the campus fountain, the sophomore men were instrumental in giving about thirty (conservative estimate) freshman men a nice cool bath. But however cruel this may seem, it is a known fact that in the melee by the fountain several sophomores came out on the short end and received a thorough wetting.

A presidential truce called an end to hostilities until the class games arrived to inaugurate Homecoming. Then one Friday night the two classes converged in Sleepy Hollow to do "honorable" battle. Outnumbered nearly 3 to 1, a gallant, not to say stalwart, band of sophomores stood their ground and walked off with the victory jug, and how happy the victors were to be able to carry the tug-of-war rope in the Homecoming parade the next day.

After such a hectic beginning, the class settled down to some serious studying, and we were rewarded at the end of the term by having three all " Λ " students in our midst—Genevieve Klein, Dorothy Long, and Helen Newcomb. (Smart bovs we have.)

The sophomore class was well represented in every department on the campus, and some of the outstanding members of these departments were second-year students. Whitfield Connor emitted a verbal barrage that gave him the signal honor of being selected college peace orator. He represented Michigan State Normal in the state contest during the Spring Term. Watson Young gave a fistic barrage that caused him to become all-campus boxing champion. Varsity teams were well supported by '39 men, and big things are expected of them in the future.

The sophomore social session was climaxed by a Spring Mixer, exclusively for sophomores.

Our shining star is only half way toward the zenith, but already it is a prominent orb in the heavens. It brightens daily, and the path it travels becomes more and more distinct. We climb, and we accomplish. Watch for us.

FRESHMEN FRIBBLE

"'Lo, Helen. Waiting for the bus?"

"Yes, I am, Bill, it's due any minute now."

"I'm leaving for home soon, myself, and then for three long months of good old summer vacation—with swimming, camping, picnics, hikes,—and no studying!—nothing but a swell time." "Why Bill, I'm surprised. You talk as if this year at Normal has been as depressing as a prison." "Gosh, was I that bad? I certainly didn't mean to be, for I've had one swell time these past nine months."

"And I, too. Remember the first week we were here? There were SO many instructions on what to do and what not to do. And then there were the Campus Sisters—'

"-and Big Brothers-"

"-and the Freshman Mixer-"

"-and the fountain episodes, and the pots-"

"-and then classes. My, I was anxious to begin, and somewhat frightened, too. But I dug in right at first—which was precisely what you didn't do."

"Yes—but I sure suffered for it later. Gosh, the studying I put in for those exams. I'll never forget them."

"At least we've both learned how to study, and how to use grammar—although yours still needs a little improving, Bill."

"What do ya mean? Why, I ain't never—gosh, I guess you're right. I'll have to watch myself during the summer."

"Oh, don't take my jesting too seriously, Bill. I'm afraid I took you unawares. But, gee, hasn't it been nice meeting a lot of new friends?"

"I'll say it has. Not counting all the new wrinkles I've added to my gray matter, I'd say that the new friends I've made have been well worth the time I've put in here.

"I'll agree with you there. But changing the subject, doesn't the campus look marvelous this morning? I rather hate to leave it."

"It does look nice-makes me a bit wistful."

"-Rather melancholy."

"Yeah.—But, golly, we'll be back before we know it, and I'll admit I'm already looking forward to coming back next fall."

"You ARE an optimist, Bill. But I'm rather sorry the year is over, though, it's been such a new experience for me—being away from home, and with so much doing all the time."

"Clubs?"

"UH-huh, and committees, and assemblies, and parties, and the sorority rush."

"Well, I kept myself busy, too, in those same things."

"Oh?—and to what sorority do you belong?"

"Huh?—oh, all right, fraternity, then, Miss Technicality. But anyway, I was kept busy and I've had a lot of fun, especially during the class games.'

"Even though we were beaten." "Well, we did put up a close fight."

"Yes, we did, Bill. But, say, we musn't forget to mention Science Gardens."

"I should say not! That's a swell place in the moonlight." "Now, now, I was thinking of the beautiful flowers there."

"Oh, my error. I certainly wouldn't want to be misunderstood. I'm SURE it was the flowers you meant."
"Smarty. But seriously, how do you think you made out in your grades?"

"Fine. I'm expecting all sorts of praise when I get home."

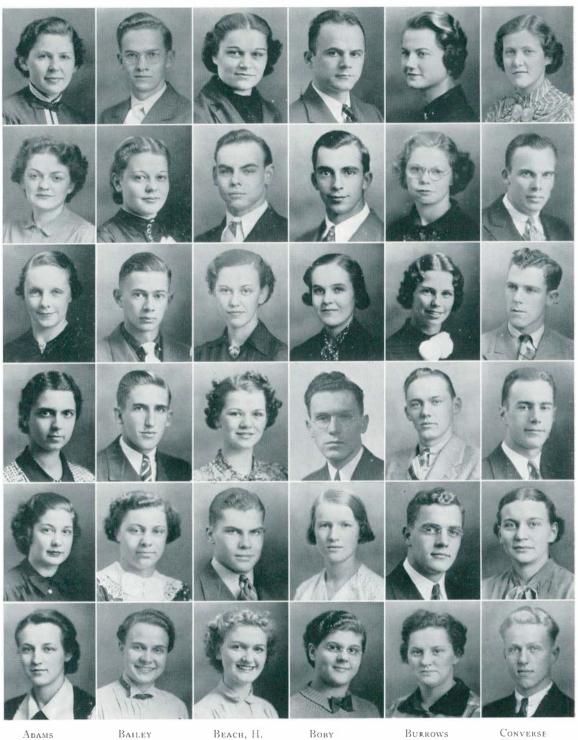

"Oh, you are? Well, Mr. Egotist, would you mind humbling yourself to the extent of helping me with my bags? Here comes my bus.

"So soon?"

"Uh-huh, and say, can't you come over and see me sometime this summer. I'd love to have

"Gosh, thanks, Helen, I sure will, we'll celebrate our first year's achievements. Hope you have a nice trip home.—G'by.'

"Good-by—Soph—see you soon."

KAPPA DELTA PI

Pi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national honorary education fraternity for Juniors and Seniors, has adopted as its primary purpose the encouragement on the campus of educational fellowship and the promotion of teaching as a profession. New members are elected each year on the basis of initiative, scholarship, and qualities of leadership. Dr. Harvey L. Turner, sponsor of the local chapter, and ten student members planned at the beginning of the year a series of stimulation programs for the season. An open meeting, at which Dr. Carrothers of the University of Michigan spoke, the annual banquet, and the Kappa Delta Pi breakfast were the highlights of the year's activities.

Margaret Owen, president, Gertrude Johnson, vice-president, Ethel Roberts, secretary, Elsie Mache, Treasurer, Robert Frantz, Corresponding Secretary, Clara Burnett, Helen Houvener, Adonna Lowe, Lawrence Rudick and Dorothy Spike elected for membership 21 Juniors and 20 Seniors during the Winter term. New members initiated into Kappa Delta Pi on March 13, were Virginia Lloyd, Francis Ballantine, Helen Borchart, Marie Tregonning, Leona Hunteman, Dorothy Stellwagen, Ida Goodman, Gordon Sweet, Lucille Layher, Betty Pooler, Iris Sturdavant, Henrietta Martens, William Cruickshank, Fred Churchill, Ada Pettingill, Edmond Goings, Clyde Murphy, Bernard Stone, Betty Malley, Dorothy Finkell, Romine Minard, Mary Jane Coe, Eltie Kemmerling, Agnes Steere, Patricia Rust, Marguerite Waffen, Mary Robinson, Norma Keener, Frances Skinner, Jean McKimmie, Joe Bertotti, Thyra Kinghorn.

PI KAPPA DELTA

The campus chapter, Michigan Epsilon, number fifty-five, was installed on June 10, 1921. The national constitution states the purpose of the society as follows: "to stimulate progress in, and to promote the interests of intercollegiate oratory, debate and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of intercollegiate fellowship, of brotherly cooperation and interest, and by conferring upon deserving candidates a badge of distinction, proficiency, and honor, varied and graduated according to merit and achievement". New members are chosen from the list of those who participate in intercollegiate debates, oratory or extemporaneous speaking. In debate, participation in a specific number of contests does not necessarily render the student eligible, but rather the general proficiency attained. Freshmen are ineligible. The annual initiation and dinner are held in May each year.

In addition to the program of intercollege contests, the National Council arranges for a national convention and speaking tournament in the even years, while each of the thirteen Provinces holds a Provincial tournament in the odd years. The next national tournament will be held at Topeka, Kansas, in the week of April 17-22, 1938. Under the guidance of Professor Harry T. Wood of our college, Governor of the Province of the Lakes, the provincial tournament was held on April 2, and 3, 1937, with Kalamazoo College as host.

STOICS

To some students of antiquity the word "Stoic" may mean a school of Greek philosophy founded by Zeno in 308 B.C., but to those who are members of the local chapter founded by none other than our own Professor J. Stuart Lathers, Dean Milton J. Hover, and a small group of their friends in 1909, it means warm friendships, or lively group discussions, and White Elephant Sales, not to mention the reception for new members at Professor Lather's home, the breakfast honoring Professor and Mrs. Lathers, the Annual Stoic Banquet, and the May Morning Breakfast. One of the outstanding achievements of the year was the establishment of a new scholarship honoring Professor Carl E. Pray, honorary member of Stoics, and friend of all students as well as faculty.

PΙ

DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta is a national honor forensic society consisting at the present time of one hundred fifty-two chapters located in all parts of the country, including a chapter in the University of Porto Rico. From the two chapters, organized simultaneously at Ottawa University, Kansas, and Ripon College, Wisconsin, in 1913, the membership has grown to about 15,000 members. The local chapter, Epsilon, sponsors all speech activities on the campus.

President IOH J P. HUTCHINSON RUTH HOLLERAN Women's Vice-President JAMES LIEBERMAN Men's Vice-President ROBERT C. GOOLD ANN STROMAR

The activities of the year were started with a Speech Mixer in Charles McKenny Hall to which all students interested in speech were invited. Then an active season followed with an early Fall contest in Extemporaneous Speaking, an Oratorical Contest on December 1st, and finally intercollegiate debating to the extent that the combined men's and women's teams totaled over one hundred encounters before the season closed. The question debated was: "Resolved that Congress shall be empowered to fix minimum wages and maximum hours for industry."

At the annual banquet, May 21st, the new candidates were presented with membership. The new members are William D. Waugh, Robert I. Frantz, Thomas R. Carrington, Earl G. Schwichtenberg, G. Frederick Liechty, Mary Jane Coe, and Whitfield Connor.

The year's activities for Pi Kappa Delta closed with a Spring picnic at Dr. McKay's cottage at Portage Lake.

WOMEN'S

Lying back of winter term intercollegiate debating were three months of reading, working on arguments, and practice debating in the Wodeso Club, women's debate organization, with Dorothy Finkell as president and Doctor McKay as sponsor and director. During the winter term, the women's teams participated in thirty-five debates with teams representing sixteen Michigan and Ohio colleges and universities.

Albion College held a practice tournament in January in which two Normal teams participated. Wodeso Club also sponsored a practice tournament here with Albion. Other debates and tournaments followed. Of particular importance was the State Debate Tournament held at Michigan State College, February 20th, where sixteen colleges entered. Our teams were Jula Evans and Dorothy Finkell who won all three debates, Jean Sprecher and Ruth Sakari, and Leona Spreeman and Ernestine Warner, freshmen debaters. At the Provincial Pi Kappa Delta tournament held at Kalamazoo College April 2nd and 3rd, Jula Evans, Dorothy Finkell, Ernestine Warner and Jean Sprecher participated in debate.

Two debates were held in March with Sigma Rho Tau, men's debate society of the Engineering College of the University of Michigan.

In a series of debates with Michigan State College a variation of the formal debate procedure was introduced, the debate-discussion. Under this arrangement the regular constructive speeches were given. Then, in the place of the rebuttal speeches, a student chairman led a forum discussion in which the audience as well as the teams participated. These debate-discussions were held before club and Grange meetings, and the audience comments were often enlightening to the debaters. This method led also to more friendly relations between the teams and gave the debaters a chance to express their personal opinions.

MEN'S Debate

The year 1936-37 proved to be a most successful season for the men debaters. Starting in October with a squad of twenty-six, before the year was over nineteen men had participated in seventy-eight intercollegiate debates. Of the forty-five judged debates M. S. N. C. teams won twenty-eight and lost seventeen. During the year, debates were held with twenty-eight different colleges.

Participation in four debate tournaments offered an especially fine opportunity for intercollegiate competition. On February 12 the College entertained the Michigan Debate League Tournament. The tournament started with a luncheon attended by 200 debaters and coaches in the Ballroom of Charles McKenny Hall and during the afternoon forty-eight debates were held. In the two League Debates we won from Central State and lost to Wayne University. In the whole tournament M. S. N. C. teams won five and lost four debates. On March 5 and 6 six teams attended the invitation tournament at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio, at which seven colleges were represented and seventy debates were held. Of the twelve judged debates we participated in we won six and lost six.

In the invitation tournament held at Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana, March 12 and 13 teams from fourteen colleges in five states were placed in competition, each team being allowed five debates. In this tournament M. S. N. C. won second place.

The final contests of the year took place at Kalamazoo College April 2 and 3 when eighteen of the twenty-one colleges of the Province of the Lakes of Pi Kappa Delta held their biennial convention and tournament. Thirty-two men's debate teams were entered and eighty-nine men's debates were held. The Men's Debate Division ended in a three-way tie for first place with M. S. N. C. "A" (McKay-Waugh) and M. S. N. C. "B" (Liechty-Crager) tied with the team from Hiram College.

On November 27, 1936, the Annual Michigan Intercollegiate Extempore Contest was held at Battle Creek College. Michigan State Normal College was represented by Howard Capeling in the men's division and Mary Joan Purcell in the women's division. Both participated in the finals after defeating candidates in the afternoon preliminaries in which fourteen colleges had representatives. Mi Purcell placed second in the final contest, and Mr. Capeling placed fourth.

On April 2 and 3 at the Province of the Lakes Tournament of Pi Kappa Delta held at Kalamazoo College Mary Jane Coe of M. S. N. C. won second place in the Women's Division of the Extemporaneous Speaking Contest and Oliver Crager won second place in the Men's Division.

JOHNSTON

The Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League has sponsored five Interpretative Reading Contest Festivals. Each year Michigan State Normal College has been fortunate in placing in the top bracket. This year Robert Frantz and Sibyl Johnston represented the college.

In addition to the Poetry Reading Contest, an innovation this year was the Prose Reading Contest. Whitfield Connor was selected to read in this division.

The contests were held at Michigan State College and the winners broadcast over Station WJIM.

GENERAL ORATORY

The 48th Annual Contest in General Oratory, the 30th Contest in Women's Oratory, was held December 1. Ruth M. Holleran, speaking on The Reserves, and G. Frederick Liechty, on The Survival of the Unfittest, both juniors, were chosen as college orators. Miss Holleran's theme was a plea to women to organize for peace, to reeducate Americans to a peaceful way of thinking and then to work for a new definition and application of national defense. Mr. Liechty discussed the problem of relief, showing how our efforts have been abused, and outlining the solution, "Society must do its part and provide the ways and means of securing a living. Then, with a gentle hand but a firm will, shove them (most reliefers) off relief and put them on their own." They performed commendably in the state contest held at Wayne University, March 5, but were not selected for honors.

In the biennial Pi Kappa Delta Provincial Tournament at Kalamazoo College, April 1, 2, James H. McCadie, who had made an excellent showing in the college oratory contest, with his speech, Does America Want a Fourth Class, won fourth place among eleven orators.

PEACE ORATORY

The 18th Annual Peace Oratory Contest occurred January 28. Whitfield Connor was chosen to represent the college. After two months of revision and polishing, he was ready with his oration entitled, "Good Neighbor Neutrality." He presented the picture of the good neighbor in a community and developed the analogy of more ideal relations with other nations along three significant lines. He spoke in the State Peace contest at Western State Teachers College, April 16, where he was warmly commended for the virility of his ideas and the conviction and artistry of his presentation. Among speakers from nine colleges, he was awarded second honor and prize of $30. He was directed to submit his manuscript for further essay honors in the national contest.

MUSIC____

BAND

Under the direction of D. Chester Ryan, the Normal College Band has become an important part of the musical portion of the various campus activities. Playing at homecomings, circuses and at all the football games, the band has gained a wide reputation for its fine spirit and cooperation, and for the striking appearance which it makes in its black broad cloth uniforms and capes lined with the college green and white satin.

The band is open to all Normal Students, with scholastic credit and awards given for the time spent in rehearsal and public performances. The band has at its command one of the largest band libraries in the country, consisting of over 4000 selections and marches suitable for any type of performance.

The Normal College Symphony Orchestra was organized in 1931, with a membership of thirty-one players. That year concerts were given in Pease Auditorium on Wednesday nights and in Charles McKenny Hall on Sunday afternoons. Soloists were recruited from the students and faculty of the Conservatory. The organization was an immediate success, for it filled a long-felt need at Michigan State Normal College.

The following years saw the growth of the organization into one of the finest college orchestras in America today. Continuing the regular concerts in Ypsilanti, the orchestra also included out-of-town engagements, playing in Detroit, Dearborn, Bloomfield Hills, Flint, Hartland, Birmingham, Port Huron, Bay City, Benton Ilarbor, Michigan and Lakeside, Ohio.

By 1933 the fame of the orchestra had spread nation-wide, and, as a result, the orchestra was invited to Minneapolis, Minnesota, in May, to play for the National Convention of the Federated Music Clubs of America. This trip was made possible largely through the financial aid of Delphine Dodge of the Dodge Motor family, who appeared with the orchestra in Minneapolis as soloist, playing the Grieg Concerto in A Minor for Piano and Orchestra. The most favorable comment followed this concert. A. Walter Kramer, Editor-in-Chief of Musical America, said in his magazine: "This orchestra amazed me. It played with genuine skill." John Erskine, the famed novelist, and President of the Juilliard Foundation, made the orchestra the subject of a Nation-wide broadcast over the network of the National Broadcasting System, citing the orchestra as an example of the marvelous work being done by the amateur orchestras in America today.

Since 1933 the orchestra has progressed rapidly, both in playing ability and in equipment. In 1933 Mr. John M. Munson became President of the College, and through President Munson the orchestra has purchased equipment and instruments. He has made it possible for the organization to have a splendid music library, to which constant additions are being made. He has given the orchestra a beautiful Lyon-Healy harp, a complete percussion unit, and music stands of rare beauty.

Twelve concerts a year are now given in Pease Auditorium, nine on Sunday afternoons at 4:00 P. M., and three during the Commencement activities. The orchestra of 1936-37 numbers 75 players. It is a complete symphonic orchestra with a full complement of instrumentalists, including three harps, full string family, full woodwinds, brass, and percussion. Upon graduation these students will become better citizens as a result of their fine work during their days at Michigan State Normal College, and they will do much to spread the gospel of good music among the younger generation of Americans.

ORCHESTRA

"A certain garment of enthusiasm invests a notable choir and among the very first choirs in this country is the Ypsilanti Normal, which Frederick Alexander has brought to such a proud place of national repute. It does not need the filip of local pride to commemorate the rise of this splendid organization, for it may be mentioned in any company and in music centers far removed from Michigan with the assurance that prompt and hearty recognition will be forthcoming.

Once a year the choir comes to Detroit to join the Symphony Orchestra in a program of Christmas music and once every year the walls are not wide enough to hold those who wish to share such a double seasonal feast."

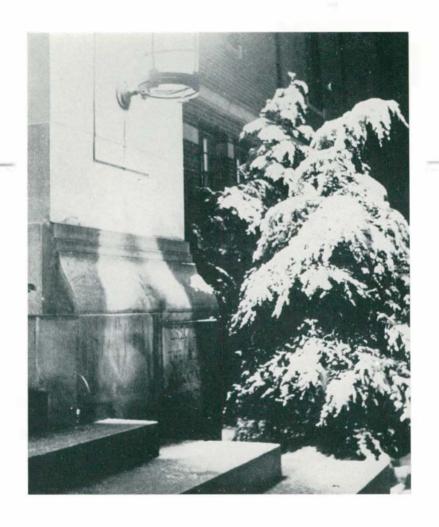

Editorial by Cyril Arthur Player (formerly of London Times) taken from Detroit News, December 12, 1924.

"The annual program of Christmas music by the Ypsilanti Normal College Choir is as much a part of a Detroit Yuletide as wintry air and bad walking and as an inevitable spectacle it far outshines a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer. Frederick Alexander, its noted and long-time director, has become a sort of slender Santa Claus with a clean shave. The choir sang at the Cass Theatre Sunday afternoon and all its traditional features were in happy presence.

The most impressive performance of the Choir for several years has been its eloquent declaration of "Sanctus" from Bach's B Minor Mass. This great statement of devout praise ended the program."

By Russell McLauchlin from the Detroit News.

DEPARTMENTS

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Many lively campus activities center around Starkweather Hall and the Y. W. C. A. This year, using the theme "Life At Its Best" as a nucleus, these activities have been especially helpful in the art of living a campus life.

The Y. W. C. A. is more than a chance to meet new friends at the Lunch-ofthe-month; it is more than an opportunity to hear interesting and entertaining speakers. Active participation in the $Y.\ W.\ C.\ \Lambda.$ develops the capacity to appreciate world relationships and ideas as well as to share material and social advantages. Finally, its highest aim is "to realize a full and creative life through the growing knowledge of God."

Starkweather Hall as a building fills the requirements of a good college institution. We students come often to find rest, a quiet place to study, a secluded place to play the piano or practice our voice lessons, a place to type our themes, and an informal place to meet our friends. Faculty and students find in the Meditation Room a solitude that is a happy contrast to most of college life. Alumni come back because in Starkweather they recapture some of the experiences of their college lives. All in all, Starkweather is to many a true "campus home".

Student representatives from the Baptist, Congregational, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches and the Y. M. C. A. work together in the Student Religious Council in an attempt to increase the religious influences on campus life.

In this effort to carry on an interdenominational program the council has held interdenominational Sunday evening meetings that brought outstanding speakers to the campus. To create greater friendship between all students on the campus they have held open house each Friday evening at Starkweather Hall, and they have had gay inter-cabinet dinners.

Realizing that to broaden religious influences necessitates enlightenment, the council has sponsored a series of lectures by Mr. Donald Grant, in addition to a dramatic and musical festival.

The whole program was topped cff by an all-campus student religious banquet that meant a great deal of fun to many students who attended.

COMMERCIAL TEACHERS CLUB

Commercial students have had the instruction and experience that has prepared them effectively to discharge the obligations of commercial teachers. Courses in business training have so developed their vocational skill as to make them efficient performers in any field of commercial education.

The purpose of the club meetings is to bring together future commercial teachers for the discussion of subjects of common interest and for the promotion of ideals beneficial to all commercial teachers. Programs included speakers in professional and business lines, tours of business or industrial places, and other educational discussions.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is the social and professional organization of the Home Economics Department. It strives to keep alive the spirit that early permeated the atmosphere of the American Home by furthering friendships and professional interest among its members. The outstanding features of this year's program were: Miss Ruth Freegard's talk on "My Trip to Mexico", a homecoming luncheon, a semi-formal dance, the Welfare Project meeting, and an illustrated lecture on Spode China.

During the year of 1936-37, the Physical Education Club was reorganized into a council. The aim of this council is to promote educational and social activities.

The first meeting, a mixer, provided an opportunity for the group to become acquainted. Interesting programs followed, such as a lecture given by Mr. Mitchell of Ann Arbor on the Olympic Games in Germany, a Winter Splash party, and an old-time dance party with a company of dancers under the direction of Miss Ryan of Mt. THE Alpha Mu Sigma sorority is one of the oldest sororities active on the college campus. Many of its early members are well known today in the music field, and they have active alumni chapters in Detroit and Ypsilanti. Every year the alumni chapters entertain the active members. This year they were entertained at a luncheon and recital at the Detroit Golf Club, and at a charming tea at the home of a prominent alumnus.

Fall term rushing featured a series of interesting parties and was concluded with a political-party dinner the night before the national election. Formal initiation was held for nine girls a week later at a supper in the home of Mrs. Wilcox.

Alpha Mu Sigma members decorated their house at 508 N. Hamilton and also entered a float in the parade at Homecoming time.

Winter term rushing started with the usual series of rushing parties, the two big parties being a fish party, and a formal luncheon and theater party in Ann Arbor.

A most successful open party was enjoyed February 6th in the ballroom of Charles McKenny Hall.

ON April 10, 1920, there were initiated into the bonds of a new Ypsilanti chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon a group of nineteen women. They presented themselves for initiation with Miss Chloe Todd as faculty advisor. Before the girls became a chapter of a national sorority, they were members for three months of a local group, Alpha Beta. We were the third national sorority to be organized on this campus, and we have thirty-two other chapters throughout the United States. At the time of our founding, Charles McKenny was college president, and Bessie L. Priddy was dean of women.

We observe such traditional days as Founder's Day, September 23rd, which commemorates the founding of the sorority at Miami University in 1914; and Mother's Day which was first observed on this campus by our sorority. Our first dance was held February 26, 1921, at the Masonic Temple, and we have held one annually during winter terms since then.

Every two years a conclave is held of all the chapters throughout the country. Our chapter was hostess to the other chapters in 1924 when the conclave was held at Detroit. Last summer's conclave was held at St. Louis, Missouri, and nine girls represented the local chapter. The next conclave will be held in 1939 at Cincinnati, Ohio, celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Delta Sigma Epsilon.

Let the face of nineteen hundred and thirty-six, Sigma Sigma Sigma left behind their chapter house of the past four years to take up new residence. The first visitor was the honorable Mable Lee Walton, National President of Tri Sigma. During her visit the weekly Sunday Firesides were inaugurated. These have proved very successful.

GLADYS KOLLIN
President

On January seventeenth, the sorority celebrated its twentieth birthday on the Ypsilanti campus. Six charter members were present including Omicron's first president, the first pledge, two national officers, and many alumni. After a banquet at the Union, tea was served at the chapter house.

Tri Sigma's National Founder's Day, April the twentieth, celebrated the thirty-ninth birthday. Old times were reviewed and old-timers renewed acquaintances.

The highlight of the year's activity was the annual formal party, a festive spring affair, held May fifteenth in Charles McKenny Hall.

Pounded in 1912, Theta Lambda Sigma celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary this year. Saturday, March 13, was set as the official day for celebration and initiation ceremonies for twenty pledges were held at 11:30 a.m. in Charles McKenny Hall with the initiation luncheon following. An anniversary banquet was given for the alumni in the evening in the ballroom and this was followed with the annual Theta Lambda Sigma dance.

In agreement with the Panhellenic system of rotating offices, the chairmanship fell to Theta Lambda and Jane Kennedy was elected to the office.

The recent movement for the substitution of a constructive pledge week for the traditional Hell-Week was begun by members of this sorority last spring term and culminated this year with the acceptance and adoption of the plan by Panhellenic and the individual sororities.

•fficers of Theta Lambda Sigma for this year are: Mabel Dana, President; Helen Houvener, Vice-President; Mildred Nissly, Secretary; Florabeth Burnett, Treasurer; Kathleen Drum, Corresponding Secretary; and Jane •Imstead, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The local Panhellenic organization has been active on the campus since 1926. Its members are representatives of both local and national sororities. Panhellenic regulates rushing, sets standards for sorority parties, plans activities for the social development of all sorority members, and stimulates scholastic achievement by means of book awards. The offices are filled by a system of rotation and the officers of Panhellenic and its advisor constitute the Executive Board which appoints all standing committees. These committees are the Constitution, Education, Library, Rushing Rules, Social, and Social Usage committees.

At the beginning of the winter term Panhellenic held a tea for freshman women to acquaint them with the sororities of the campus.

A two year program has been started by Panhellenic on the theme "The Advancing Sorority". The units of this theme, presented to all sorority meetings and later discussed by each sorority, are "How to Get a Lot Done," "How to Get Along with People", "How to Work Right", "How to Converse", and "How to Cultivate the New Type of Leadership".

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

This year more than ever before we find the fraternities on this campus actively cooperating on projects for their common good. This movement can be credited to a great extent to the brilliant leadership of Clyde Murphy, the Interfraternity Council president, and to the superior ability and industry of the other Interfraternity Council representatives.

Early in the Fall term these men began their constructive planning for the fraternity men on campus. Soon their efforts were rewarded when all the fraternities agreed not to hold any pledging activities the first six weeks of the Fall Term. The seventh and eighth weeks were designated as "Open House Weeks", and each fraternity listed its open house with the Interfraternity Council Secretary, Charles Neir, to avoid overlapping of dates. Then for the first time in the history of this campus, an All-Campus Pledge Night was set. Since this time, additional pledging rules have been made. Now no man can be pledged to any fraternity unless he has been on campus at least one term and has maintained a C average or better.

The quality of the men represented on the Interfraternity Council has enabled them this year to work together on common fraternity problems and to succeed in finding a satisfactory solution. In order to distinguish these men as the ones directly responsible for these progressive movements, gold watch charms were awarded to them by their fraternal groups.

As was so aptly expressed at the Annual Interfraternity Banquet, "We are no longer six separate fraternities; we are six branches of the one large organization, united by our central organization, the Interfraternity Council".

September

Last days of Pompeii and September . or Freshman days at M. S. N. C. and life begins the twentieth . Faculty tea at McKenny Hall . . . the very young meet the very venerable with immense awe—These, the Faculty! . Small ice cream and smaller cakes . . . pale green and white, The Colors . . and was it ever anything but hot weather the day of the tea?

Green buttons and Campus Sisters green pots and M. U. G. S. (Men's Union Guide Service, born this year and ought to grow fast) . . . all for the freshmen women and men . First time under fire: President Munson's welcome—Swedish jokes and cure for homesickness: Go Home! . Placement tests all around Welch Hall . . . Where's that? you say lost on campus . . . looking for an advisor and advice for the next four years . . . Campus Tours, around and around . . . Here you learn history, educational theory, mathematics and how to ascend and descend long flights of stairs at a more than Normal rate of speed . . . there you sing, attend assemblies and pep meetings . somewhere else are the regular Rhetoric classes . . . this edifice of medieval grandeur and disintegration is the Gym . . . there lies sciencebut science never lies! oh well, you'll learn . . . or you'll leave . . . So the tour goes . . and there goes your first pair of shoes and your last pair of feet. . .

Monday night a frosh frolic for the girls, with the men outside looking in . . . and they scatter at the sight of a Dean . . . Same night: Cap Coronation and the frosh men walk off under 131 rakish green pots not intended as gifts. . .

Tuesday bright and very early upperclassmen discovering unknown corners in the gym for curricular advisers to hide in . C. P. Steimle announces (stentorian tone) that required class is filled just as you arrive at the table . . . You forgot your name there . . . your church preference there . . . are you working this term? . . . Meanwhile the frosh hear from Dr. Snow and that man with the iron will, Eddie Stahl . . . Miss Andrews demonstrates the Libe . . . ought to be your favorite hangout . . and Dean Jones offers her annual "Know Your College" the old place hasn't changed a bit . . . and Bing Brown's old refrain . . . That eve . . a frosh mixer . . mixing upperclassmen now and then . . . few dance . wall decorators. . . .

Wednesday: grind of a freshman's first registration day . . Faculty member: Haven't you this? . . Well, you've got to have that before you come to me Back you go to get it and lose something on the way that is as valuable as your life on this day . . . no, the class is filled . . . no, you must have five prerequisites for that . . . you're in the wrong curriculum line; Early El. is over there . . . Callouses develop, dear frosh, after years of it. . .

Wednesday night: All-College Mixer they call it . . . Barbara Whan speaking for the upperclass women: Freshmen girls, stay away from the upperclass men! . . . President Munson: College students are the hardest working human beings . . . Don't we know it! . . . Dance at the gym after the annual run through the annual rain. . .

First day of classes . . . Professor's names . . . your names . . . no, pronounce it this way Frosh still lost on campus finding a place to eat and a place to sleep . . . good intentions for the year . . . September passes. . . .

October

October begins with big ideas and more news in the Normal News everybody settles into the swing of studying, but with one eye cocked on the Homecoming weekend, the 16th, 17th, and 18th . . . Jim Richards and Ray Helber are appointed co-chairmen of the Homecoming

Frosh and Soph rivalries reach a new high in fountain swimming and general student warfare . . . Flash! Class Presidents, Soph Bryson and Frosh Murphy declare truce until the class games that will open Homecoming. .

Reported that 1369 brains are following the local curricula on the roads to higher learning . . . Gridiron growlers engage Northern on October 3rd and toss Eskimo bones aside to the tune of 12-0. . The Candid Camera clicks at local dances for a social innovation—free tickets to the three recognizable faces in the photo.

Carlos de Vega and troupe dance Spanish dances . . . repurcussions pleasant and unreasonable. .

Little Symphony opens its concert season . . . Alexander picks choristers. First home football games are all intellectual interest in tactics and no old-time cheering . . . complaints and student opinion letters . . . Milt Roth even goes to a game to show the girls how to knit! . . . But Jim Matthews clears the collective throat and wheedles a noise of encouragement for the grid-iron gamblers. . . .

Topics of the moment the week before Homecoming: Huron Princess election . vote at Gala Day assembly led by a fiery Wille Speech . Jane Kennedy, Virginia Hallman, and Gertie Deal . . Katie Drumm is mentioned for Huron Papoose . . . She says "Ugh! Ugh!" Meaning what?

Just before the battles, the Normal News breaks with a big story . . . Aurora to be awarded every student! how the old world changes!

October 16, 17, 18 Homecoming the Big Weekend hysterical alumni crowd the downtown "clubs" and babble over their favorite brews. . . Friday afternoon the Sophs grab the class games . . . Friday night Don Wille takes a lot of heckling and tosses it back at the pep meeting Saturday . . . parade . . . game . . . lost by a little . . . banquet alumni dance in the evening alumni everywhere . Sunday concert . . . sigh and its over . . . next year we'll be back

Two jumps and we're back in the old grind following the calendar and checking the off-days the green jug is pilfered from Soph President Bryson for its first French leave of the year . . . Headlines from the Normal News: "Freshman Class Wins Parade Float Prize" . . . "Jones Talks on Europe to Women at Assembly" "Brave Hurons Defy Death to Hang Welcome Sign on Water Tower" . "Drama Club Casts for Lower Depths" . "Spanish Minors Revive El Circulo Espanol" . . . then at last: "Missing Jug Found on Bryson's Porch" . . . the Kryl symphony comes to town again . Aurora at last means its deadline in a deadly way . . . Frosh won't wear their pots . . . but they do . . . Oh well, on to November.

November

At the Spook Swirl, October 31st and All Saints Eve, the co-eds reap the last bit of life out of October and leave the way open for one more month— ovember.

Aurora reports 7 7 faces are to appear in the student section of the new book . . November 5 the faculty chat goes up in political smoke with Bryan Heise, Principal of Denton School, showing Professors Waugh and McKay how the country should be run and how that third party will do it.

Sport lights: Harry Werbin leads the Cross Country team to several victories or near victories . . footballers outswim Valparaiso 7-6 down in the Hoosier state . . . boot out a 19-13 victory over Illinois . . . W.A.A. begins tournaments among the co-eds. . .

An Armistice Day program presented Dr. George Vincent in support of international understanding and how it is to be gained.

The Social Committee's first cabaret goes well . . . more to come. . . .

CABARET PARTY

HARVEST HOP

CO-ED PROM

Those who love to talk are preparing for an active season . . . Mary Joan Purcell and Howard Capeling go to the state extemporaneous speaking contest . . . Purcell places second in the finals . . . Capeling places first in men's preliminary at home, the women orators meet at their preliminary contest, and a large group of men prepare for theirs. . . .

Wrestling descends to the level of daylight entertainment . champions are named anyhow . . . the Little Symphony's second program brings back a former member of the conservatory faculty, Miss Grace Emery, as guest soloist . . Marion McCormick, music student, arranges Palgren's "May Night"

What's this . the Harvest Hop again . dance of the month first formal of the season . girls give it even pay for it . . . or some of it . . . Freddie Kay's band is nabbed . . tickets are doled out parsimoniously each hour to secure more democratic distribution . . no freshman rush this year . . . lines, lines, lines of co-eds . . . oh yes, the dance was a success . . . all kinds of a success.

Finally the Thanksgiving exodus . . . clusters of waving thumbs on every going-out-of-town corner . . . much dashing hither, but mostly thither of family vehicles . . . gang-ups on the busses . . . good-bye education for four days . . . very deep breaths everywhere . . . November is taken out with the turkey's bones.

December

And December drags out the first term of the 36-37 educational season to a painful close . . .

First day of the month begins with oratory
... and those voluminous tongue waggers,
wind blowers, word puffers, oracular enunciators
Ruth Holleran and Fritz Liechty win the annual collegiate contest in fine style . . . Dr. Fagerstrom presided .

Music swings to the front with all the good old Christmas spirit. . . Fossenkemper provided a real thrill with the introduction of Suzanne Malve at the orchestra's Christmas concert . . . and one lovely winter's night

ORATOR FRITZ

ORATOR HOLLERAN

Frederick Alexander's a capella choir sings
. hours of harmony . . . old favorites for twenty-eight years of the choir's exitence .

Of course the Yule Log Drag shows the dancing side of December out and for the last assembly Mr. Fred Speaght reads Dicken's "Christmas Carol".

Gertie Deal and Bob Ford come out as J-Hop co-chairmen . . . women are actually coming into their own on the campus ____ nuff said . . .

In the line of statistics, Health Cottage treats 853 during Fall term . . .

Then the three days that shake the world . . . finals . . . first of the season _ _ _ note the harrassed frosh in the cafeteria swallowing convulsively over a history book propped in the spinach . . . careless sophs heckling the waiters . . . nonchalant juniors arguing class politics . . . resigned but uneasy seniors, silent and thinking hard . . . general agreement that something is getting tougher around here every year . . . students heard to mutter over hamburgers in the White House . . . "knee flexors, breathing muscles . . ." over tomato soup or chile, "cardinal objectives of education are . . " over grilled cheese sandwiches and coffee, "quantum theory by Planck, means _ "

YULE LOG DRAG

Over at last . . . mournfully pack up your fall apparel . . . step down to the corner and waggle your thumb in the direction of Unionville or Pittsburgh ten of you charter a bus for Buffalo, New York City, and other points east . . . take the train for Greenville, Cleveland, or Iron Mountain . . . Season's greetings and so long!

You might watch the mail box for those grades . . . then prepare the family for the shock . . .

January

And January comes in like a spring lamb . . . but there's plenty in the air . . . always is for winter term . . .

Like veterans the frosh settle back on their heels in the classification lines practice in the cafeteria during a rush hour, maybe . . . not so many papers to fill out this term . . .

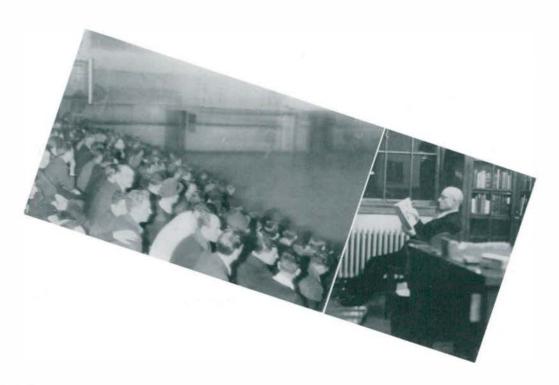

The Normal News staff adds size to the paper hoping the college will bestir itself and make history . . . well, local history at least . . .

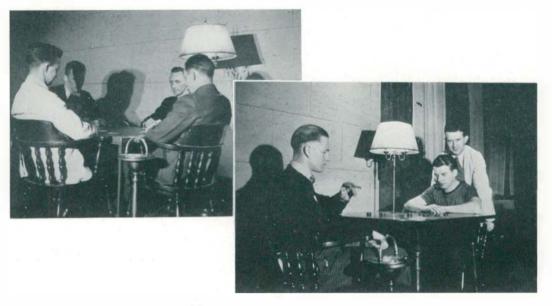

First thing whispered about is what eligibility rules did to the original J-Hop committees over vacation and mark-receiving time . . and it is heard that brother Champe, junior class president, is sticking "plenty-close" to co-chairmen Deal and Ford .

The social committee announces plans for a new member of the dime dance series . . . vote to be taken soon January 13, an assembly of special note . . . Dr. Arthur Pillsbury, chunky little scientist . . . his natural-color motion pictures of giant Hawaiian flowers opening from buds, wilting . . . of the germination of plant life photographed through a microscope . . . special illusory effect: the figure of a man wandering dimly, blindly through a live plant cell, knee-deep and shoulders wreathed in a moving mist of protoplasm . . . rather weird . . rather ominous visionary . . .

Opening basketball season takes the jumpers and tossers to Detroit for a session with the rough and tough boys of the U. of D. . . M. S. N. C. stood the gaff for fourteen minutes first total of the year, 39-20 . . that 39 for the r. and t. of the U. of D.

A QUIET EVENING, MEN'S LOUNGE.

Suddenly . . . staggering news . . . right out of the blue-black smoke of Detroit comes $150,000 from Walter O. Briggs, Detroit industrialist . . . to be used for the construction of a new athletic field for M. S. N. C. and the town . biggest gift we've ever had . . . bowings and scrapings from we thankful . .

January 22 and 23 the Special Ed conference meets on the campus . . . (Note: M. S. N. C. ranks very high in this field, very high) . . . dinners, forum discussions, lectures, special edition of the News . . Professors Lord, Ringman, Wilbur, and others, in their glory . .

That vote on the Friday night Woolworth dances comes through with a tremendous yes . . . Dramatics Club begins its series of one-act play matinees with a big success . . Women's League promises to organize women to capture some of those class elections, as they should . Sororities rush, rush, rush the freshmen girls . . . Fraternities start their Hell-weeks . . . The Honorable Ellen Wilkinson of the British Parliament tells an assembly audience how it feels to be a woman leader in a man-run government Inter-fraternity ball brings the Benny Kyte band to our ears . . .

The tempo quickens . . . mid-term tests loom . . . January digits break the teens, the early twenties, slip easily into February . .

February

Warm on the trail of January comes February . . this warm winter term . .

What with a stiff academic schedule, local politics, ticket selling, dances, guest lecturers, and club meetings makes quite a strain . . . quite a strain . . .

Mr. Donald Grant from Edinburgh, Scotland, lectures around the grounds on matters of vital importance international conditions, politics, and the like on the 11th and 12th . . . Miss Elizabeth Osborne comes to make the girls charming ladies . . . her prescribed treatments sound a little expensive . .

J-Hop is ballyhooed hither, thither, and all over the place . . . High Pressures Liechty and Richards push over the sale of those $4.00 tickets . . . and they go like that . . Chuck Baker wins the J-Hop poster contest . . . his poster is illustrated on this page . .

Over on the Sports side we hear more about Abe Rosenkrantz . . . invited to the Millrose run . . . which he takes to the tune of 1:55% and a Hamilton wrist watch . . . the quintet is touched by Armour Tech, 38-33 . . . but flourish the ball over Hope, 30-22 . . .

The Men's Union Coffee Hours . . . with free food . . . gain much popularity . something like a rival of the Women's League sponsored Faculty Chats . . .

Debate Tournament fills up the campus, Friday, February 12th, with a super-abundance of men . . . who said women did all the talking . . .

Bits about the J-Hop recur constantly . . . the Dick Jurgens band is snatched for a pretty penny or two they say no scalping of Hep tickets yes?

Flu bug is active . . . among the faculty . . . first one departs . . . then another . . . Health Cottage is full of students . . . the T B X-Ray machine spends a few days on campus for the benefit of those curious about their lungs . . . their cylinders, as Professor Lindegren says at the pep meeting

The men debaters had their inning . . now those two talkative veterans, Jula Evans and Dorothy Finkell, make a 100% team rating at the Women's State Tournament in Lansing . Dr. George Raiguel returns to talk at an assembly on the international situation . . . one joke . . .

And finally that big social high light with plenty of soft lights . . . the J-Hop . . .

THE I-HOP.

March

And the first day of sun brings out the candid camera \dots

The Circus Comes To Town

March comes in as meekly as a freshman after one of Miss Best's mid-terms but what have we this term? . . . Circus . . . Women's League elections . . . the annual Bach festival . . . even the end of a term . . . no chance to let down, ease up, or otherwise let time go by . .

'37-'38 League Elections follow . . . "I've voted. Have you?" . . . and after the battle of the ballots that small Irish comes out on top, Ruth Holleran

In the course of the term, the choir sang its 1937 swan song in reverent Bach.

Bob Frantz and Sibyl Johnston become the college interpretative reading winners...

the last faculty chat introduces Professor Reninger, member of the English faculty who can stir even a freshman's brain cell to activity, however momentarily...

Finally, after what someone called the academic craze of "Cram. Cram. Who passed the exam?", thirty-one seniors leave with various degrees of educated minds . . . Ruth Holleran starts her ride to California for the sake of the Women's League convention doors are locked . . . notebooks cleaned out . . . and March is over . . .

April

A soggy April starts the Spring term . . . white shoes come out anyway . . . skipping over and around puddles.

First on the roster, Mr. Stahl decides to stay in McKenny Hall instead of going to the University of Detroit . . . various sighs of relief

Then Joseph Schnitzler, the man who put punch behind education for handicapped children in Michigan, speaks at the first April assembly . . . some cried; some did not . . . which brings up Professor Elliott's report to the effect that our Special Education department is the best he could find between here and LaJolla, California palms and orchids to that division of our local system . .

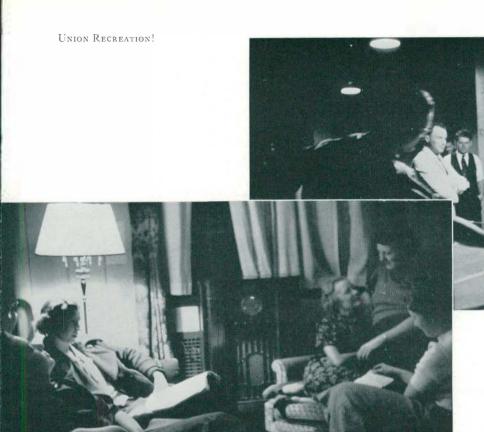

The first Union Coffee Hour of the term calls in Dr. O. O. Norris . . . and his philosophical ideal for humanity that each of his students will always remember "to support, maintain, continue, and further improve the species life"

Dance on hand is the League Lark, sporting Nate Fry's band . . report on hand is the Ruth Holleran trek to the California convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students . . which cost the League $51.98 . . . or two cents for each of the 2500 miles our delegate travelled.

Rumor has it that the Aurora will be issued June 1st . . check up for yourself; is this June 1st?

THURSDAY THE NORMAL NEWS!

New movements on campus . . . the choral group . . . student organized . . . directed by student, Bernard Stone . . singing student selected songs . . and over in the "George", student artists paint cartoon murals of local sports in a vague way M. S. N. C. is evolving an art life of its own . . .

The Men's Union election begins to buzz the political Olympics of the local year . . . candidates for next year's president are Duane "Bud" Nelson, artist of the drama and of wielding the Union tray, and Neville "Tex" Walker, artist of treading through enemy territory on the football field . . .

As a parting shot the clouds move over for the last two days of Λ pril and let the sun prove it's still up there .

But on to May; let's get this year over . . . the sooner, the sooner, and that's all there is to it . . .

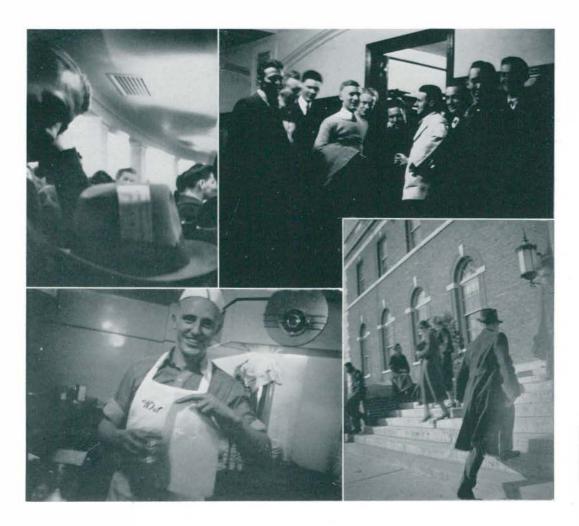

May

May 1st . . . Saturday . . sunshine and all the balmy breezes that go with spring . . empty Library . . but the League Lark fills the evening and McKenny Hall with music and spring dance . .

May 2nd . . . Sunday evening $$. the new choral group gives its premiere with the help of the Guild Players . . .

4 J-Hops (more or less); 4 Harvest Hops (m. or l.); 4 Yule-Log Drags (ditto); 4 to 40 fraternity or sorority dances; 36 Kresge dances (more or less); uncounted and unnamed trips to Walled Lake Casino to dance;

1440 to 2700 hours of silent and meditative study, at the rate of two to five hours every school day. More than a few achieve 3000 or more;

2304 hours spent, or should have been spent, in academic classes;

Loss of o to 50 pounds of energetic poundage;

Loss of a formerly optimistic outlook on the future, the career, and general means of livelihood;

Loss of much naive trust in others and elders;

Gain of some theories and fewer practices; a smattering of knowledge; and the right to vote when there is something to vote for;

Result: One senior, equipped with degree, teaching certificate, and a contract, we hope, with salary attached.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

This far-reaching organization had its origin away back in the Fall of 1925 to satisfy a need of the women of the campus. The purpose was to offer a sports program so varied that it will interest every girl on the campus in taking an active part, and to offer individual sports that have a definite carry-over value to those participating. It has enlarged from year to year and now offers every activity wanted by the women of the college. This year's officers were Clara Burnett, President; Marion Haller, Vice-President; Gertrude Deal, Secretary; and Elsie Mache, Point Recorder.

The sports that have been offered this year include the following: hockey, soccer, volleyball, basketball, baseball, tennis, swimming, badminton, archery, fencing, ping-pong, shuffleboard, hiking, golf, cycling, bowling, skiing, tobogganing, skating, and riding. There is a student manager in charge of each activity; many of the minor sports are organized as a club, with points for all activities.

The awards of the organization are: 500 points, W.A.A. bracelet; 1000 points, W.A.A. pin; 2000 points, W.A.A. jacket; and 3000 points, W.A.A. blanket.

Top Row—Strachan, Teall, Mache, Eppler, Burnett, Haller, Rust.

FALL

November 18th was the second annual party by the name of the "Turkey Trot". As one of the traditions of the organization, this Fall party is planned exclusively by the Junior physical education students. Verona Blair was in charge of the entertainment, and other chairmen of the party were Dorothy Swanson, Betty Strachan, and Sarah Heckrodt. Here the winter program of sports was revealed; the order of fun was games, mixers, and dancing, both social and old-time. Miss Harris reeled off all the figures and calls for the Virginia Reel and other square dances.

Hockey . . . driving, clashing sticks, the furtive ball, and the struggle at the goal posts! All these, plus cold damp November weather make this major sport one of the most thrilling and competitive. The Seniors were favored to retain the championship they won last year, but the Sophomores proved themselves the better hockey players. The winning team was composed of the following girls: Marion Turnbull, Madaleine Reinelt, Eloise Wellock, Lois Wellock, Elaine Greene, Beth Gordon, Clara Smiggens, Rosemary Deto, Phyllis Collins, Lillian Galbraith, and Frances Rider.

Volleyball was the next sport to claim the interest of the campus co-eds. There was extra-keen competition in this sport, with both interclass and intersorority tournaments being held. The Sophomores annexed their second championship of the year, losing no games during the tourney. Intersorority rivalry was just as keen, with Theta Sigma Upsilon, Theta Lambda Sigma, and Sigma Nu Phi in the race. The Sigma Nu Phi's were victors through the efforts of Elaine Greene, Olga Madar, Marion Haller, Sarah Heckrodt, Mary Joan Purcell, Elsie Mache, Elizabeth Moon, Maxine Campbell, Rosemary Deto, and Alberta Teall.

Crisp Fall weather attracted forty-two co-eds, faculty, and alumnae to the annual Fall camp, held this year at the University of Michigan Camp at Patterson Lake. Those who were brave enough took the last dip before zero weather set in. The activities on the program were hiking, outdoor cookery and canoeing, with instruction being given in the latter two. It is one of the traditions of the organization and is eagerly anticipated each Fall.

Shots and Passes, a department publication, was started this term, edited by Alberta Teall, Senior.

WINTER-

The major competitive sport of this term was basketball, beginning at the very start of the school term and carrying through. All the girls of the campus were eligible to play; captains made up their own teams, organized their players, and arranged the schedule with the help of Gertrude Deal, basketball manager. This year there were six independent teams in the contest, with the "L. B. I's." again the victors. The interclass games were exclusively for students majoring in Physical Education. The interest in the sport extended to a Basketball Play Day held at Battle Creek, with com etition among the various schools of southern Michigan. Twelve players represented this college, winning two out of three games.

Another sport in full swing during the winter term was ping-pong. It was estimated that 150 girls used the equipment furnished by the W.A.A. in participating in individual and tournament play. Esther Lapointe successfully defended her 1936 championship against the same runner-up as last year, Doris Leonardson. Miss Lapointe gained the final round by defeating Olga Madar; Miss Leonardson reached the finals by winning from Lillian Galbraith. In the intersorority matches, Alpha Mu Sigma ranked first, being represented by Doris Leonardson and Patricia Rust. Sigma Sigma Sigma was second and Theta Sigma Lpsilon was third.

Camp—the annual tradition of the organization—was not omitted even during the blizzard months. This year fifty-five students, faculty, and alumnae attended Camp Wathana. Skating, skiing, and sledding made up the outdoor amusements; eating, singing, and dramatics, the indoor. The feature of this year's Saturday night entertainment was Gertrude Deal's music and Vern Blair's impersonations.

The social program of the club was fulfilled by the Cupid Caper, planned and executed by the juniors. The evening was spent in games, dancing, square dancing and more square dancing under Miss Harris' supervision.

Other winter sports carried on during this term were skating, fencing, and badminton. Two nights a week, transportation was furnished for the skaters to go to the Coliseum. On the nights when the gymnasium was open for basketball, equipment was available for fencing, under the direction of Elsie Mache and Niss Eppler. At the same time, several badminton games would be in progress. A tournament was held during the term.

Spring, the harbinger of many things, brings with it all the invigorating sports such as tennis, golf, baseball, and swimming. As in all the other sports on the program, each one is supervised by a student manager.

As soon as April mud became May weather, the tennis courts were filled with such enthusiasts as are pictured here. Lillian Galbraith, tennis manager, sponsored an all-college singles tournament and an intersorority doubles tournament. About 25 signed up for the all-campus meet, and there were five sororities represented in that bracket, namely, Sigma u Phi, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Mu Sigma, Theta Sigma Upsilon, and Kappa Gamma Phi.

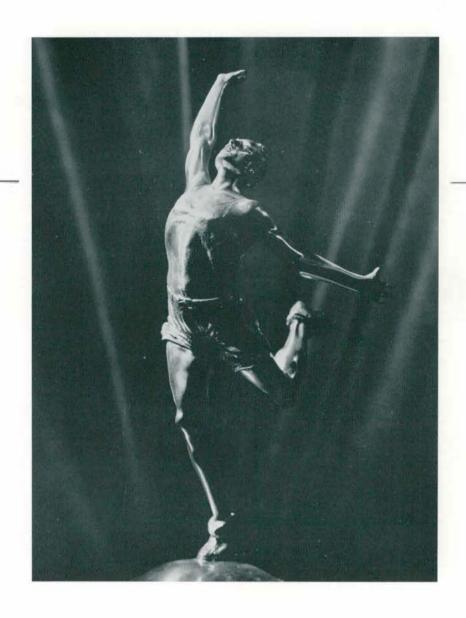

The first outdoor swimming for the girls, as a whole, came the weekend of Spring Camp, June 4th and 5th. Chilly waters defied no one, and played an important part in the camp program. This consisted of hiking, swimming, and boating, with special instruction in canoeing.

The major sport of the term was baseball, the American game. This year there were six independent teams, captained by Eloise Wellock, Olga Madar, Ruth Van Zandt, Geraldine Henderson, Betty Matthews, and Helen Beach. There was a Round Robin tournament, games played in Sleepy Hollow two nights a week.

Although the above were the main events of this term's program, there were many individual sports carried on in just as enthusiastic a manner as the team games. Elsie Mache directed the archery enthusiasts; Sarah Heckrodt marshalled the hikers along the trails around and beyond the campus. Three times a week, girls rode at the nearby riding stable under the direction of Jane Kemmerling. Gladys Kollin had charge of the badminton, and there was an all-college tourney held in this sport.

The climax of the whole year's work of the W.A.A. was the annual Spring banquet, held following the Spring Camp. At this time the awards were made and the champions of the various sports were announced. Blankets, the highest award of the organization, were presented to Clara Burnett, Marion Haller, Elsie Mache, and Alberta Teall. Olga Madar and Patricia Rust received jackets, the next highest, with 2000 points. For earning 1000 points, Lillian Galbraith, Sophie Greenstein, Eloise Wellock, Lois Wellock, Elaine Greene, and Gertrude Deal were given pins. Margaret Pitkethly was the only one to receive a bracelet, the minimum award.

COACHING STAFF

To our coaches we are indebted for our success in athletics and our reputation as good competitors. In the field of sport our teams are recognized throughout the nation for their playing abilities and their sportsmanship.

J. H. McCulloch, better known as "Doc", although not actively coaching, is in charge of the physical education department. "Doc" has been directly responsible for the successful circuses and other programs put on by his department.

Elton J. Rynearson, or "Rynie" as he is more familiarly called, is our coach of varsity football and basketball. The fine record that "Rynie" has compiled in recent years with his football squad has been very impressive.

In charge of track, cross-country, and golf is Lloyd W. Olds. All of his teams have been successful in the past years and he is given credit for developing many nationally known track stars. Besides his coaching dutie Olds is in charge of our efficient intramural department.

The youngest member of the coaching staff, Ray Stites, is the coach of varsity baseball, and the freshmen football and basketball teams. In his first year Ray has developed a fine baseball team and has proved a valuable assistant to Rynearson in football.

Paul B. Samson is the husky, gentleman who is responsible for our splendid tennis teams. You can see "Pop" on the courts any Spring day practising with his charges.

Rallying from a serious accident this past fall Delmar I. Allman is back on the job as a trainer to our varsity teams. "Del" also takes charge of the freshmen track and cross-country teams and is assistant intramural director.

After a slow tart the 1936 Huron grid machine began functioning and finished the season with four consecutive victories. Having a vast supply of material, Coach Elton Rynearson was desirous of giving all candidates a chance to play under fire. Ball State and Northern State were defeated in the two opening games by narrow margins as Normal's potential strength failed to materialize. A little puzzled at their lack of unity, the Hurons dropped two close decisions to Bowling Green and Wayne before they could pick up momentum.

With four tough opponents looming ahead, and a traditional record of not 1 sing more than two games per season to be protected, the Green and White team put on pressure. "Rynie" evidently struck on his best combination as Normal ripped through Central State, Valparaiso, and Indiana State before their own Homecoming patrons for close victories and defeated Normal University of Illinois in an exciting game on Alumni Field.

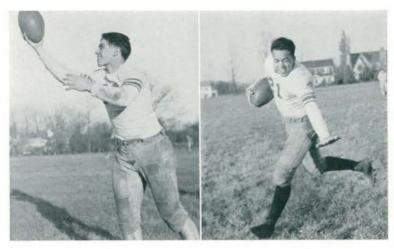

The Huron squad of twenty-four members ended the season as a scrappy, hard-charging, and sportsmanlike team. They were well molded in the Warner double wing-back style of offense and employed a durable never-give-up spirit on defense. The team of 1936 will be remembered for their team-work as there were no individual stars.

With only the loss of Capt. Christy Wilson and Ray Grables to centend with, and under the able leadership of Capt.-Elect "Augie" DeFroscia, the prospects of another good year in 1937 look bright.

Coach Ray Stites did double-duty as he proved to be a valuable aid to "Rynie", and also coached the Huron yearlings. Archie Rader must be remembered for his able assistance as trainer in the place of the injured Del Allman.

Although winning more games than they won in the previous season the 1936-37 Huron basketball record was far from impressive. Having only a few tall men Coach Rynearson was forced to place a comparatively small team on the floor. However, by displaying a scrappy, aggressive quintet, "Rynie" was always able to give the opponents a good fight.

Throughout the season the Hurons showed marked improvement. After a disastrous opening night defeat at the hands of the clever University of Michigan five, the Normalites began to improve. They followed this defeat with a victory over Alma and then dropped a close game to Hope. The season continued with a victory here and there followed by a defeat or two, as "Rynie" was never able to find an effective starting combination. Saving their best game of the year until the very end, Ypsi's rooters saw their team come from behind in the second half to give Wayne a scare before they bowed to the fast Tartar five.

With the return of nine of his ten varsity players and the addition of some promising freshmen Coach Rynearson is optimistic over his chances for a winning season next year. The last Wayne game marked the departure of Capt. George Wendt from Huron varsity teams. George has been a mainstay on the Normal basketball and baseball teams for the past three years and in his senior year he was the captain of each team.

Michigan Normal's varsity cross-country team closed another successful season while keeping their impressive past record intact. Not daunted by the loss of Bill Zepp and Santee Brockman, Coach Lloyd Olds was able to mold a good team around Capt. Harry Werbin and Abe Rosenkrantz, his half-mile star.

In their opening meet, the Normal harriers treated the Bowling Green Homecomers to a rare sight when the entire team of six men crossed the finish line abreast in a tie for first place. A trip to Oberlin the following week saw the Hurons triumph in a close run. Wisconsin Normal was the guest of Ypsi for the next meet, and with the first appearance of Rosenkrantz, Coach Olds' squad gathered their most impressive victory of the season with Werbin finishing first and Rosenkrantz third. Traveling to Wabash College, Indiana, Normal met little opposition and walked off with their final dual meet by taking the first six places. Werbin breasted the tape first and was closely followed by Hall, Wyble, Drajila, Frye, and Rosenkrantz.

In the State Intercollegiate run held at East Lansing, Normal placed second to the Michigan State harriers. A week later, in the Central Intercollegiate run, Capt. Werbin, the lone Huron entry, finished fourteenth. D. O. Wyble proved to be the choice of his teammates for the captaincy of the 1937 team.

TRACK

Coach Lloyd Olds tracksters have enjoyed another highly successful season. During the indoor season they emerged victorious over Detroit Tech, Central State, Butler, Kalamazoo, Hillsdale, and Albion, losing only to Michigan State which was their first loss of a dual meet since 1932 when they fell to University of Michigan.

In the State Relay Carnival at East Lansing on March 6, the Huron thinclads gained two firsts, three seconds, and one third. A week later in the Central Intercollegiates at South Bend, Normal runners managed to gain 13 points with William Hawthorne, John Anderson, and Gene Noisette scoring. On March 20, participating in the Armour Tech relays in Chicago, Anderson scored a second in the low hurdles while Noisette managed to take fourth place in the high jump. On the same day Hawthorne gained a second in the pole vault at the Butler Relays in Indianapolis. The high light of the all-campus indoor meet was the thrilling duel in the high jump between Noisette and Charles Drewyour who both cleared over 6 feet 5 inches to set a new indoor mark.

Abe Rosenkrantz, one of Ypsi's most famous runners, spent a good deal of his time during the past winter traveling throughout the East, Middle West, and Canada. He was invited to all the important meets, and he was successful in carrying off his share of the honors.

This Spring many of Normal's star trackmen are winding up their collegiate competition. Among those competing for the last time are William Hawthorne, Bowman Hall, Abe Rosenkrantz, Harry Werbin, Warren Frye, James Matthews, and Francis Exworthy.

BASEBALL

Coach Ray Stites had a difficult time getting his baseball team started this past Spring and as a result they lost their first few games. Faced with the task of finding a complete new infield, Ray was further handicapped by the lack of a field house for the early conditioning of his squad. As the weather cleared, the team was able to get into condition. "Tex" Walker at third, Don Todt at shortstop, Jim Walsh at second, and Harry Garian at first was Stites' starting lineup in the field. In the outfield were Francis Scripter, Captain Walter Good, and Jack Weaver with Herman Bartling behind the plate. From the pitching staff, Ray selected Harry Tower, Martin Zachar, and Fred Bailey as the most outstanding.

With a hard schedule in front of him and his players mostly sophomores Coach Stites deemed it best that he build for the future. Next year with a veteran team and a new ball park, better things are expected of the fighting Hurons.

FRESHMAN CROSS COUNTRY

Although not measuring up to the teams of the past two years this year's frosh football team will surely be represented on the 1937 varsity. There were no regular frosh games played but the yearlings had plenty of exercise as they continually scrimmaged with the varsity. Coach Ray Stites spent much time with his charges this fall as he drilled them in the fundamentals of football and by next year he hopes to turn over some well drilled players to Head Coach Rynearson. Among the most premising players were Walt Siera, Mac Valleau, and Joe Pokrywka in the backfield and Curt Rendle, Bob Thomases, Morris Jaffe, Clarence Goodsman, and Paul Taylor in the line.

The frosh cross country team had another mediocre season this Fall. Engaging in only a few meets, the harriers did not meet up to the records achieved by the yearlings of the past few years. In the absence of Coach Del Allman, the team was coached by a student Norman Kutner who did an excellent job. Among the most promising candidates for the positions left open on the varsity through graduation are Ray Stickles, Neville Hughes, Francis Spata, and LeRoy Grindle.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TRACK

Coach Stites' frosh basketball team enjoyed a successful campaign during the 1937 season. Working with players from different sections of the state and country, Ray's job was most difficult. However, at the end of the season, he had his charges playing topnotch ball as they made the varsity hustle in their daily scrimmages. The team succeeded in winning four of the eight scheduled contests. Two were won from Cleary; the Wayne and Central State games were split, while University of Detroit proved to be too powerful in both games. All members of the team are rated a good chance to make the varsity squad next year.

A husky, lively group of candidates reported to Del Allman's freshman track call this Spring, and, as a result, the varsity in the next few years should have some outstanding performers. Designated as a squad, and not as a team, there were no meets except the intramurals. Those showing the most promise were: Floyd Hoffman, Lee Sharpe, sprinters; Mac Valleau, LeRoy Grindle, Neville Hughes, and Ray Stickles, middle distances; and Ralph Kooperman, Oliver Zittle, Oswald Gaynier, Morris Jaffe, and Walter Simpson, in the field events.

The varsity golfers under the direction of Coach Lloyd Olds have enjoyed another creditable season. Normal's representatives in the royal and ancient game of golf were not discouraged by the many difficulties that were thrown in their path. First there was a mixup in the athletic appropriations and as a result there was no money allotted to the mashie wielders. After a check-up the finances were straightened out, and a belated attempt was made to arrange a schedule. Then Ralph Lorenz, Captain of the 1936 team, found it necessary to leave school so that he could enter business. This left Captain George Russell, Louis Wenger, and Melvin Schmeck as a nucleus for the team. Robert Champe and Malvern Hiler were the best of the new candidates and after a series of playoffs, Champe was chosen as the fourth man to round out the varsity team.

Home and home series were played with the University of Detroit, Wayne, Olivet, Adrian, Grand Rapids Junior College, and DeSales of Toledo. Washtenaw Country Club was selected as the Huron's home course, and many students were among the spectators that followed the contestants about in their collegiate matches.

Facing the hardest schedule it has been asked to undertake in many years little hope was held for the varsity tennis team record. With the loss of a few veterans, Coach Paul "Pop" Samson had a difficult task in finding a winning team. Captain Romine Minard, Merlin Schultz, and James Richards from the 1936 team were joined by Edmund Howard and Harold Goodsman, a pair of promising sophomores. Losing their first two matches by large scores, the team with the aid of considerable practice showed improvement and gave a good account of itself in the remaining centests of the Spring season.

HERMAN BARTLING Intramural Manager

INTRAMURAL

Lloyd W. Olds, director of Intramural Athletics, together with his staff, Del Allman, his assistant, Herman Bartling, and John Burg has again given the students of Michigan State Normal a varied and extensive group of intramural sports. During the year, almost the entire student body has competed in one or more phases of his program. Included among these activities are tennis, golf, crosscountry, football punt, speedball, handball, wrestling, boxing, basketball, pingpong, basket shooting, badminton, bowling, volleyball, swimming, softball and horseshoes.

Although class leagues have been disbanded because of lack of interest, a new method of championship, that of All-Campus, is being tried out. Beautiful trophies and charms are given to the winners and runners-up of various sports. These activities are also well liked among the non-participating students as is readily seen by the record turnout at the boxing and wrestling bouts.

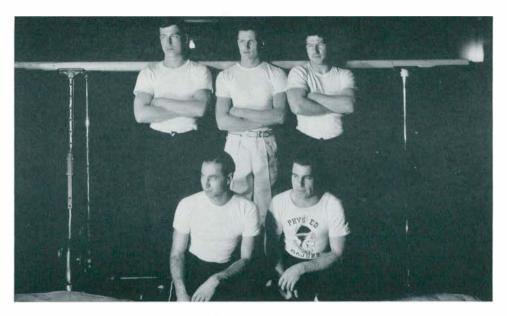

The interfraternity league again has become the center of student athletic interest. This league composed of Kappa Phi Alpha, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Arm of Honor, Phi Delta Pi, Zeta Chi Sigma, and Sigma Mu Sigma proves very beneficial to many students who would not otherwise have a chance to participate. The fraternities have been enthusiastic supporters of their teams, fighting in every instance to win and yet maintaining their friendship with the other organizations.

Starting with speedball in the Fall, the league swung into action. Tennis, golf, handball, basketball, swimming, volleyball, ping-pong, softball, and finally horseshoes round out the program.

The reign of the Arm of Honor has been stopped temporarily as Kappa Phi Alpha has emerged victorious in the 1935 and 1936 seasons. No longer is the league a two team race as Phi Delta Pi looms as a strong contender. Not since 1929 have the Phi Delts won but with a strong athletic team they must be considered in the next few years.

GYM TEAM

Under the capable tutelage of "Doc" McCulloch, the 1937 gym team was judged one of the best in the state. Although no intercollegiate meets were scheduled, the gymnasts had many invitations to demonstrate their skill at various school functions throughout Michigan. Led by the sensational ladder walker and aerialist, Tierra Koski, the team was composed of Harry Nelson, Norman Kutner, Don Johnson, and Norman Meisel.

After many weary hours of hard practice, the gymnasts were ready to perform their stunts at the biennial circus sponsored by the Physical Education Club. Their acts, particularly that of Koski's, were the sensation of the two-night stand and many encores were necessary before the audience was satisfied.

Koski has participated in his last circus, as a student, for Ypsi as he was graduated at the end of the winter term, but his feats will long be remembered. So outstanding were his acts that he was immediately signed by a large eastern circus to perform under the "Big Top".

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In terminating the work on the 1937 Λ urora, it is our sincere wish to thank those who have contributed to the production of the book.

We appreciate the technical guidance, cooperation, and excellent workmanship of the Service Engraving Company, the Rogers Printing Company, and the Smith-Molloy Company.

For the class photographs, we thank Miller's Studio; for the photographs of the main division pages, Service Engraving Company; for Feature pictures on pages 193, 196, 198, 199, and 200, Frederic Churchill; for Feature pictures on pages 202 and 203, Felix Schneider; and for all sub-division pages, the majority of the Features, the "action" shots in the Women's Athletic Section and in the Men's Athletic Section, the staff photographer, Roger Heath.

We wish to especially thank the members of the staff and faculty who have assisted in the making of this 1937 Aurora.

But it is to the Women's League; Men's Union; the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes; and to President John Munson that we are most deeply ndebted for making it possible for every student to have a yearbook.
