Dear Ms. Kertesz:

Thank you for your September 3 letter to Susan Highleyman. Ms. Highleyman, however, has recently resigned from the Press, so I am taking the liberty of responding to your letter.

Yes, we will send a review copy of your published book to Thomas Lask at the New York Times. We have sent him a fall catalog of our new books so that he will know what we are publishing this season.

To date we have no response from Grace Schulman or Jane Cooper to indicate that they are interested in seeing and commenting on your book. William Meredith said that he was, unfortunately, over committed, and Denise Levertov's secretary told us that Ms. Levertov was unable to undertake any additional work at this time. We have the quote from Richard Eberhart, of course, and we will use that.

We are all looking forward to the publication of your fine book.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Summer
Sales and Promotion Manager
